MEDIA INFORMATION

WELCOME TO CAL FOOTBALL

The 2014 University of California Football Information Guide is produced to provide information on the Golden Bears for anyone interested in learning more about the program. Media covering Cal football should review this section in detail to learn about Cal's policies and services. Additional information can be found online by visiting CalBears.com/media. Please contact a member of the Athletic Communications staff if you have any questions or concerns.

KABAM FIELD AT CALIFORNIA MEMORIAL STADIUM DIRECTIONS

Attending a Cal football game at Kabam Field at California Memorial Stadium is an exciting entertainment experience. The stadium is located along Piedmont Avenue between Bancroft Way and Hearst Avenue on campus in Berkeley. The best way to get to the venue is to plan ahead and consider all transportation options available to you.

BY AUTOMOBILE

From San Francisco Airport, take Highway 101 north to Interstate 80 and cross the Bay Bridge. Once over the bay, take Highway 24 toward Walnut Creek. Exit at Claremont Avenue and turn left. Turn left onto College Avenue (third light). Turn right onto Channing Way, then left onto Prospect Street, which will lead to the south end of the stadium.

From Oakland Airport, take Interstate 880 north, then Highway 24 east toward Walnut Creek and follow directions above.

Gameday media parking is located in the Underhill Garage at the corner of College Avenue and Channing Way.

These directions provide the most direct routes to Memorial Stadium, but other city streets and freeway exits provide alternate routes that fans are encouraged to use to avoid congestion. Please call 511 or go to 511.org for real-time traffic conditions.

More detailed information can be found on the campus map at visitors.berkeley.edu.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Public transportation is highly recommended when visiting Berkeley. There are multiple options that lead directly to Memorial Stadium, and the Downtown Berkeley BART station is about one mile west of the venue. Please visit bart.gov, actransit.org or 511.org for more information.

CALBEARS.COM

Visit CalBears.com for the most recent, frequent, relevant and accurate information on Cal Athletics. CalBears.com covers the Golden Bears inside and out.

In addition to player and coach profiles, press releases, schedules, feature stories, videos and multimedia content, there are also links to each of Cal's social media pages and much more.

CalBears.com/gameday contains complete information for fans visiting Memorial Stadium.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

The Pac-12 Conference and each of its members use Collegepressbox.com. The site contains a large amount of information available for download by media members. Contact Kyle McRae for more details, including a username and password for full media access to the site.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests/questions for media, photo and parking credentials for 2014 Cal football home games should be made to Herb Benenson (510-334-0791, benenson@berkeley.edu) in the Athletic Communications Office at 349 Haas Pavilion, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720. Only media who cover the Bears on a regular basis will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will result in that member of the media being moved to the single-game list.

All single-game requests should be made as far in advance as possible to help ensure space availability both in the press box and on the field. Requests for media covering a visiting team for a Cal home game should be made through the opposing school's football media relations contact. Credentials will be available for pick up at Media Will Call located in the third-floor lobby of the Simpson Center for Student-Athlete High Performance just outside Gate 5 near Warring Alley the day of the game unless other arrangements are made.

Media should consult CalBears.com/media for complete media and credential policies.

INTERNET ACCESS

Both wireless and ethernet connections are available in the press box and field-level photographer work area. Contact a member of the Cal Athletic Communications staff on gameday to obtain a username and password for wireless access. No password is necessary for ethernet connections.

MEDIA PARKING

The Underhill Garage serves as the football gameday media parking location. Entrances are off either Channing Way or Haste Street, just west of College Avenue. The lot is about three blocks from Memorial Stadium. Media can either take the short walk to Media Will Call at Gate 5 in Memorial Stadium or use a media-only shuttle that begins running two hours before game time. A media shuttle is also available postgame from the pregame dropoff point along Warring Street to the Underhill Garage.

Parking passes cannot be left at will call on gamedays and must be picked up or mailed in advance.

Television crews should order parking passes for their crews by sending in the Special Event Parking Arrangements form found on the university's website (pt.berkeley.edu) in advance. Request the Underhill Garage for football games. Note that the campus parking office does not accept credit cards – only cash or check.

Parking at Cal is always at a premium and visitors are encouraged to use public transportation. The Downtown Berkeley BART station is located about one mile west of Memorial Stadium, in close proximity to Haas Pavilion, Edwards Stadium/Goldman Field, the Hellman Tennis Courts and Spieker Aquatics Complex. AC Transit also runs several lines to campus on gamedays.

On non-football gamedays, hourly guest parking is available in the Witter Lot east of Memorial Stadium, at the Underhill Garage off Channing Way and in the RSF Garage along Bancroft Way.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call is located at Gate 5 in Memorial Stadium. It will open six hours before kickoff and remain open through the conclusion of the first quarter. Identification is required to pick up credentials or tickets. Parking passes cannot be left at will call.

Media who arrive after the end of the first quarter should call the press box at (510) 642-3098 to obtain their credentials.

PHOTO REQUESTS

Requests for photos can be made through the Athletic Communications Office. Fans can also purchase images of all 30 teams by visiting goldenbearsports.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear a photo vest at all times, in addition to a photo credential. Photo credentials are not distributed in advance and must be picked up on gamedays at Media Will Call located at Gate 5 in Memorial Stadium. Photo vests are distributed on the field behind the visitor (west) bench and near the entrance to the photographer work room at the 20-yard line on the north end and west side of the field.

NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (team area).

In addiiton, photographers and videographers are welcome to use the photo deck located on level six of the press box.

PHOTOGRAPHER WORK ROOM

A photographer work room has been established at field level in Memorial Stadium (west side at approximately the 20-yard line on the north end of the field). Power and internet access are available, as well as limited desk space on a first-come, first-served basis. Additional photographer work stations are available in the press box. Pregame meals and drinks are available on the south end of the media level of the press box (seventh floor).

Access to the internet is available through both wireless and ethernet connections. Contact a member of the Athletic Communications staff on gameday to obtain a username and password for wireless access. No password is necessary for ethernet connections.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS

All player and coach interviews, either in person, by phone or via email, must be coordinated through Kyle McRae in the Cal Athletic Communications Office (510-219-9340, mcrae@berkeley.edu).

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Cal football will conduct postgame interviews in the Tahir Family Team Theater inside the Simpson Center for Student-Athlete High Performance. A member of the Athletic Communication staff will lead media to the room at the conclusion of each game.

Cal head coach Sonny Dykes as well as players and coaches requested by media members will be present to answer questions. Visiting team interviews will be in the media room just outside the visiting team locker room on level one of the stadium (through a tunnel on the southwest end of the field). Contact the visiting team's Athletic Communications Office for postgame policies.

POSTGAME MEDIA WORK AREA

The Memorial Stadium press box also serves as the postgame media work location. The area is equipped with desk space, electrical outlets and internet access. Final statistical game books, as well as postgame notes, quotes and other relevant media materials will be distributed.

PRACTICE MEDIA COVERAGE

Cal is scheduled to practice at Memorial Stadium during the 2014 season on Sunday and Tuesday-Thursday. Contact Kyle McRae for specific policies regarding non-gameday coverage of the team.

PRO SCOUTS

Professional teams wanting to scout games at Memorial Stadium should contact Herb Benenson for credentials (benenson@berkeley.edu)

TELEPHONE LINES

Telephone lines at Memorial Stadium, both in the press box and inside the TV compound, must be requested at least a week in advance through Herb Benenson (benenson@berkeley.edu).

TWITTER

Media can follow @calfootball and @CalAthletics on Twitter for a wide array of information, news and notes. On game days, @calfbnotes provides media with the latest information.

UPDATED INFO/ MEDIA EMAIL LIST

Contact Kyle McRae to be placed on the Cal football media email list and receive relevant updated information regarding Cal football, including media schedules and policies, throughout the season.

VIDEO FEEDS

Video highlights of Cal football games are available throughout the season via the Pac-12 Conference satellite feed. For more information, contact the Pac-12 office at (925) 932-4411.

VISITING RADIO PHONE LINES

ISDN and dial lines, as well as dry pairs to the visiting team locker room and visiting team interview room, are available for complimentary use for the official visiting team radio network. All other requests for lines should be directed to Herb Benenson (benenson@berkeley.edu).

TELEVISION/RADIO

THE FLAGSHIP STATION

KGO 810 AM is entering its 42nd season as the flagship station of California Golden Bears football. KGO Radio's 50,000 watts has been carrying Cal football since 1974. Led by play-by-play announcer Joe Starkey, KGO's signal, along with the other affiliates within the Cal IMG Sports Network, provides statewide coverage of Cal football. Each KGO broadcast begins 60 minutes before kickoff. Then after all the action, the 60-minute postgame show hosted by Lee Grosscup and Danny Freisinger airs live from the Paragon Restaurant & Bar inside The Claremont Hotel Club & Spa and features a reaction from the Bears' locker room followed by a breakdown of the game.

IN THE BOOTH

Joe Starkey, the legendary voice of the Golden Bears, is in his 41st season with the Cal football broadcast team in 2014.

Cal's play-by-play voice is perhaps best known for his legendary call of "The Play." The famous five-lateral kickoff return for a touchdown against Stanford in 1982 is part of college football lore with Starkey's emotional "the band is on the field" part of gridiron vernacular.

Joe Starkey

Starkey has had an array of NFL and NHL positions during his career, including a 20-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers he fulfilled in conjunction with his Cal duties from 1979-2008.

In 2010, Starkey received the Chris Schenkel Award from the National Football Foundation for his distinguished career broadcasting college football.

He is joined in the booth by former Cal quarterback Mike Pawlawski, who will be in the fourth season and second stint as part of the Cal football broadcast team in 2014. Pawlawski previously served for one season as the team's analyst in 2004 after two campaigns on the sideline before rejoining the broadcast team in 2012. He has also been a television football analyst since 2000, working for entities such as Comcast SportsNet, FOX and NBC.

Mike Pawlawski

Pawlawski led Cal to back-to-back bowl victories as the Bears' starting quarterback in 1990 and 1991, and was the Pac-10's Co-Offensive Player of the Year as a 1991 senior.

In his 11th season on the broadcast team in 2014 is sideline reporter Todd McKim, who also serves as host of the weekly Inside The Locker Room radio show and on the broadcast team for Cal men's basketball radio broadcasts. Before joining Cal, McKim was a long-time media member as a television anchor and sports director in Eugene, and was the 2000 Oregon broadcaster of the year.

PAC-12 ENTERPRISES

Pac-12 Enterprises is the content and multi platform media company for the Pac-12 Conference. Headquartered in San Francisco, Pac-12 Enterprises was created in 2011 to develop and launch the Pac-12 Networks and Pac-12 Digital in 2012, and to control the distribution of the Pac-12 intellectual property rights in sports and other conference initiatives. The Pac-12 Networks are full-time HD linear networks available to video programming operators, dedicated solely to the Pac-12. They consist of a national network and six regional feeds (including Pac-12 Bay Area focusing on Cal and Stanford) that televise hundreds of live sporting events annually and provide 24/7 access to Pac-12 teams and universities. Pac-12 Digital encompasses the digital network, mobile, the university websites, social media and innovative digital initiatives across the company.

INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM

Inside The Locker Room takes to the air every week beginning in the last week of August through the end of the men's and women's basketball seasons. The one-hour live program will be hosted by Todd McKim and broadcast on Mondays from 7-8 p.m. on KGO 810 AM. Head football coach Sonny Dykes will be interviewed regularly throughout the football season, while head men's basketball coach Cuonzo Martin and head women's hoops coach Lindsay Gottlieb will be interviewed during their respective seasons. Additional guests will include other Cal coaches, currrent and former student-athletes and Cal Atheltics staff members.

SONNY DYKES

Head Coach, 2nd Season

Sonny Dykes is moving full-steam ahead with the rebuilding of the Cal football program in his second season as the Golden Bears' head coach and his 20th as a collegiate football coach in 2014. There is much optimism for the future with signs of progress in all areas for a program that had a combined 16 freshmen and sophomores listed as starters on its final depth chart, improved its single-season Academic Progress Rate (APR) score 46 points to 969 and became one of Cal's most active teams in the community in the first year under Dykes.

Dykes is enthusiastic about his second season at Cal.

"We're excited about where we're headed," Dykes said. "We have a group of players that are starting to understand what it takes to be competitive at this level and what our expectations are. I'm really proud of their response to the challenges we've issued them. They're working hard both on and off the field, and they're starting to develop a team mentality. That's critical as we move forward and become a much more competitive football program."

"There are so many questions that get answered in the first year so your second year is always so much more efficient," Dykes added. "The biggest thing is to continue to get better every day and make progress. Although a lot of the progress we made in the first year hasn't showed up on the field yet, we've made huge strides in so many different ways and we think that will be evident on the field in the second year. When that happens our fans will be able to see the progress that we're making. Year two is always a lot more fun because that's when you really visibly see your program start to grow and the things you teach start to take hold."

Despite being an inexperienced unit that was the nation's second-youngest to start the season and injuries that caused players on the preseason depth chart to miss 138 games due to injury, Cal set school records in 2013 for single-season passing yards (3,977), pass completions (368) and total plays

(1,046). The passing offense finished the regular-season third in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation with an average of 331.4 yards per game that was also the best in school history. Cal's 5,443 yards of total offense was the third-highest total in school history and its average of 453.6 yards per game ranked fourth all-time at Cal.

Dykes tutored true freshman quarterback Jared Goff, who started all 12 games and was the first true freshman quarterback in school history to start a season-opener. Goff set school records in passing yards (3,508), most yardage gained (3,508), total offense (3,446) and completions (320) in his first season as the Bears' signal caller. He also finished the regular season among the nation's top 25 in completions per game (6th, 26.67 cpg), passing yards per game (12th, 292.3 ypg), passing yards (18th) and total offense (24th, 287.2 ypg).

Dykes came to Cal after spending three seasons at Louisiana Tech where he directed an offense that led the nation in both scoring offense (51.50 ppg) and total offense (577.92 ypg) during his final campaign at the helm in 2012. He spent three seasons as head coach for the Bulldogs, compiling a 22-15 record and winning 16 of 17 regular-season games during one stretch over the 2011 and 2012 schedules.

Dykes guided his 2012 Louisiana Tech team to a 9-3 mark, including road victories over FBS opponents Illinois (52-24), Houston (56-49) and Virginia (44-28). The Bulldogs also lost a narrow 59-57 decision to a Texas A&M team that later defeated top-ranked Alabama and earned a spot in the Cotton Bowl. Louisiana Tech reached as high as No. 18 in the national polls according to USA Today and was No. 19 in the Associated Press Top 25 after jumping out to a 9-1 start.

Dykes' high-energy style of offense produced a prolific unit that in addition to leading the nation in both scoring offense and total offense produced the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). The squad also finished among the NCAA's top 20 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 per game), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (17th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

Quarterback Colby Cameron was named the 2012 Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and earned the Sammy Baugh Award presented to college football's top passer by The Touchdown Club of Columbus. Cameron completed 359-of-522 passes (68.8%) for 4,147 yards and 31 touchdowns with just five interceptions. He ranked third nationally in total offense (360.33 ypg), while he was 22nd in the nation in passing efficiency (153.19).

On the ground, running back Kenneth Dixon was tabbed the 2012 WAC Freshman of the Year after breaking Marshall Faulk's NCAA freshman records for rushing touchdowns (27), total touchdowns (28) and points (168). Dixon led the country in scoring with 14.00 points per game while totaling 1,194 rushing yards on 200 carries.

During his tenure at Louisiana Tech, Dykes engineered a turnaround for a program that improved all three seasons under his leadership. The Bulldogs were 4-8 the year before he arrived in 2009, then proceeded to finish 5-7, 8-5 and 9-3 in successive campaigns. In 2011, Louisiana Tech started just 1-4 before winning seven consecutive games to clinch the Western Athletic Conference title – the team's first conference championship in a decade – and a berth in the Poinsettia Bowl. Dykes was named the WAC Coach of the Year for the effort.

Dykes, the son of former longtime Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes, boasts a resume that includes additional stops in the Pac-12, Big 12 and SEC, where he served under such head coaches as Mike Stoops (Arizona), Mike Leach (Texas Tech) and Hal Mumme (Kentucky).

As offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona for three seasons from 2007-09, Dykes helped the Wildcats to the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl and 2009 Holiday Bowl after having not reached the postseason for 10 years. Arizona posted marks of 8-5 both seasons and tied for second in what was then the Pac-10 in 2009 with a 6-3 league record.

Under his direction, the Wildcat offense established five single-season records. Arizona ranked 10th nationally in passing yards in 2007, and the Wildcats were 16th in scoring and 33rd in total offense in 2008. Dykes mentored, among others, quarterbacks Willie Tuitama, who was named MVP of the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl, and Nick Foles, who was selected in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft by Philadelphia and is now the starting quarterback for the Eagles.

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes spent seven seasons at his alma mater, Texas Tech, serving as receivers coach from 2000-04 and adding the title of co-offensive coordinator from 2005-06. The Red Raiders made seven straight postseason appearances and won 56 games during the span, including four postseason victories in the Tangerine, Houston, Holiday and Insight bowls over his last five seasons. In his final campaign at Texas Tech, the Red Raiders ranked No. 3 nationally in passing offense (369.5 ypg) and sixth in total offense (447.9 ypg). In 2006, Dykes received the Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach Award from the American Football Coaches Association, the same year he was recognized as one of the top 25 recruiters in the country by Rivals.

Dykes spent two non-consecutive seasons at Kentucky, first as a graduate assistant working with tight ends in 1997 and later as special teams/wide receivers coach in Mumme's "Air Raid" attack in 1999. During the fall of 1999, James Whalen developed into a first-team All-American and set a Division I-A record for tight ends with 90 receptions.

Sandwiched in between his two stints in Lexington, Dykes was the wide receivers coach at Northeast Louisiana in 1998, where he helped receiver Marty Booker set school season and career records while earning spots in the Blue-Gray Football Classic and East-West Shrine Game before being selected in the third round of the 1999 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

Dykes began his collegiate coaching career with a two-year stint at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas, from 1995-96. He also was a baseball assistant at Monahans High School in Texas in 1994 and a football assistant at Pearce High School outside Dallas in 1995.

Born in Big Springs, Texas, Dykes received his bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 1993 and was a member of the Red Raider baseball team for two seasons. He is married to the former Kate Golding and they have two daughters, Alta (Ally) and Charlotte (Charlie).

ASSISTANT COACHES

TONY FRANKLIN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks, 2nd Season

Tony Franklin is in his second season as Cal's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2013. Franklin's first offensive unit at Cal in 2013 set single-season school records for passing yards (3,977), pass completions (368) and total plays (1,046). The passing offense finished the regular-season third in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation with an average of 331.4 yards per game that was also the best in school history. Cal's 5,443 yards of total offense was the third-highest total in school history and its average of 453.6 yards per game ranked fourth all-time at Cal.

Franklin's prize pupil was true freshman quarterback Jared Goff, who started all 12 games and was the first true freshman quarterback in school history to start a season-opener. Goff set school records in passing yards (3,508), most yardage gained (3,508), total offense (3,446) and completions (320) in his first season as the Bears' signal caller. He also finished the regular season among the nation's top 25 in completions per game (6th, 26.67 cpg), passing yards per game (12th, 292.3 ypg), passing yards (18th) and total offense (24th, 287.2 ypg).

Goff threw to a prolific group of wide receivers that etched their names in the Cal football record books in 2013. Bryce Treggs (77) and Chris Harper (70) put up reception totals that are fourth and seventh on the school's all-time single-season list, while Kenny Lawler emerged in the second half of the season including a three-touchdown reception game that equaled the most in a single contest by a Cal player in school history. Richard Rodgers also had his most productive season by far at Cal, picking up career highs of 39 receptions and 608 yards receiving. Rodgers was a third-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in 2014 NFL Draft.

"Tony and I share a similar vision for what we want our offense to look like," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "The most important thing is that we both want to figure out a way to move the football, score points and win games. We've done it different ways in the past and the great thing about Tony is that he just wants to win. He doesn't care how we do it. That's the basis for building a good program is to have unselfish people and he does a great job of doing that."

"The future for Cal football and this offense has never been brighter," Franklin said. "I'm excited to see this evolve into a championship program. Year two will see dramatic improvement in offensive production as well as wins. After living in Berkeley for more than a year, and working in the Cal community I'm more convinced than ever that there isn't a better opportunity for young people to receive the world's best academic opportunity, coupled with an exciting championship brand of football and life!"

Franklin will have most of his offensive weapons returning in 2014 with Goff and each of the top four receivers other than Rodgers back, as well as three of the team's top four rushers. Cal will also have eight offensive linemen with starting collegiate experience returning.

Franklin served in the same role for Dykes at Louisiana Tech from 2010-12. In his final campaign with the Bulldogs, Louisiana Tech posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in scoring offense (51.50 points per game) and total offense (577.92 ypg) to make Franklin a nominee for the Broyles Award given annually to the nation's top assistant coach and one of four finalists for the FootballScoop.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

In addition to leading the nation in scoring and total offense with an offense that posted the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), Louisiana Tech ranked among the NCAA's top 20 in 2012 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), fewest sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 spg), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (18th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

Quarterback Colby Cameron was named the 2012 Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and earned the Sammy Baugh Award presented to college football's top passer by The Touchdown Club of Columbus. Cameron completed 359-of-522 passes (68.8%) for 4,147 yards and 31 touchdowns with just five interceptions. He ranked third nationally in total offense (360.33 ypg), while he was 22nd in the nation in passing efficiency (153.19). Cameron also set a new NCAA record for most consecutive passes without an interception over his first 428 attempts in 2012 and totaled 444 going back to the previous season.

Second-team AP All-American Quinton Patton, now a member of the San Francisco 49ers, was Cameron's top receiver and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist in 2012 with 104 catches for 1,392 yards and 13 touchdown receptions. Patton led the WAC in both per-game receiving yards (116.00 ypg) and receptions (8.67 rpg), with those numbers ranking fourth and fifth nationally. Myles White added 56 catches for 718 yards and six touchdowns, while ranking fourth and sixth in the WAC in per-game receiving yards (59.83 ypg) and receptions (4.67 rpg).

On the ground, running back Kenneth Dixon was tabbed the WAC Freshman of the Year and earned Freshman All-American honors after breaking Marshall Faulk's NCAA freshman records for rushing touchdowns (27), total touchdowns (28) and points (168). Dixon led the country in scoring with an average of 14.00 points per game while totaling 1,194 yards on 200 carries. He was also second in the WAC and 33rd nationally in rushing with an average of 106.42 yards per game. Capital One Academic All-America® first teamer Ray Holley, a graduate student pursing a degree in counseling with a 3.50 GPA, added 740 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground over 142 rushes.

During Franklin's second season in Ruston in 2011 he orchestrated an offense that was fundamentally sound and continued to improve weekly on a Louisiana Tech team that finished 8-5 overall and won the WAC title with a 6-1 league record before advancing to play TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl. Tech ranked third in the nation with five different scoring drives over 90 yards during the season. That precision guided Tech's offensive explosion at Fresno State when the team scored 34 points and notched over 400 offensive yards in the first half alone. The offense produced more than 40 points on three occasions and averaged 31.71 points per contest during a seven-game win streak to end the regular season. Patton was among both the top receivers in the WAC and across the nation in per-game receiving yards (92.46 ypg, No. 2 WAC, No. 20 NCAA) and receptions (6.08 rpg, No. 4 WAC, No. T28 NCAA), finishing with totals of 79 receptions for 1,202 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In Franklin's first year on Tech's staff, his spread offense exploded into a high-octane mechanism in the middle of the season resulting with the team scoring 34 points or more in four of the final six contests and 41 or more three times. Running back Lennon Creek was the team's top threat, rushing for 1,181 yards and 10 scores on 212 carries. His average of 98.42 yards rushing per game ranked third in the WAC and 22nd nationally.

Franklin spent one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Middle Tennessee in 2009 prior to his three-year stint at Louisiana Tech. At MTSU, Franklin's offense generated 421.69 total yards of offense and 32.00 points per game, the fourth and seventh highest totals in school history for a team that posted a 10-3 record that was its best since 1992 and had a seven-game win streak to end the season that was the longest at the school since the 1985 squad won its first 11 contests. The Blue Raider offense, which produced three All-Sun Belt Conference players, scored 30 or more points nine times, including each of the last five games, and topped the 400-yard mark on eight occasions. Franklin's 2009 unit set school records in total yards (5,482), passing yards (3,064) and total points (416), with per-game averages that were 23rd nationally in scoring, and 27th in total offense and rushing offense (186.00 ypg).

Middle Tennessee quarterback Dwight Dasher came of age in Franklin's offensive schemes. The second-team All-Sun Belt Conference performer was the MVP of the 2009 New Orleans Bowl, where he broke Vince Young's NCAA record for yards rushing in a bowl game by a quarterback with 201 yards (since broken by Johnny Manziel in the 2013 Cotton Bowl). Dasher ranked seventh in the nation in total offense (303.31 ypg), threw for a school-record 23 TD passes and was named the SBC Player of the Week three times that season. Dasher finished the season with totals of 2,789 yards passing and 1,154 yards rushing to become only the eighth player in NCAA history to pass for over 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season, and the first quarterback in Middle Tennessee history to rush for 1,000.

Franklin made his way to Middle Tennessee after a brief stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Auburn, where he coached the Tigers to an overtime victory over Clemson in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl. He remained in the role six games into the 2008 season, with Auburn adding to his Chick-fil-A Bowl victory in 2007 by sporting a 4-2 record in 2008 before he was released from his duties. The Tigers were 0-5 against Division I teams the remainder of the 2008 campaign following his departure.

Franklin was in the same capacity the previous two seasons at Troy (2006-07) where the Trojans combined to go 16-9 overall and 12-2 in the Sun Belt Conference while collecting two league titles. During that span his offense scored 30 or more points 11 times and on eight occasions in his second season, including games against Florida, Georgia and Oklahoma State. In 2007, his squad led the Sun Belt in scoring offense (34.00 ppg) and total offense (452.83 ypg), with a No. 16 national ranking in the latter.

In addition to helping the Trojans to their first Sun Belt Conference title and a victory in the New Orleans Bowl in his first season at Troy, Franklin helped engineer the second-ranked offensive unit in the Sun Belt just one year after the team ranked last in the league in total offense. The Trojans ranked first in the league in passing offense, again one year after ranking last, despite having faced three of the top-20 ranked passing defense teams in the country during the season, and more than doubled their offensive output in conference action to 25.23 points per game.

Franklin spent four campaigns on the football staff at Kentucky from 1997-2000 following 16 seasons as a high school football coach. During his tenure at Kentucky, the Wildcats enjoyed unprecedented success on the offensive side of the ball, setting several NCAA, SEC and school records. After coaching running backs for the first three seasons, Franklin was named offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the 2000 campaign and led the Wildcats to success as the nation's second-best passing offense as well as the country's 11th-best team in total offense.

Franklin's two-back combinations at Kentucky outgained any two-back combinations in the SEC in total yards from scrimmage for three straight seasons. Quarterbacks Tim Couch, Dusty Bonner and Jared Lorenzen each led the SEC in passing during their time as Kentucky quarterbacks, and Couch was the first player selected in the 1999 NFL Draft. Several other UK players reached their goals of making NFL teams after their experience in the high-powered offense.

Franklin was also named one of the top 10 recruiters in the South during his four years at Kentucky as he helped lead the Wildcats to their first back-to-back bowl appearances in 15 seasons in 1998 and 1999, including their first New Year's Day Bowl game appearance in 47 years against Penn State in the Outback Bowl following the end of the 1998 campaign.

Franklin also spent one season in 2003 as the general manager and head coach of the Lexington Horsemen of the National Indoor Football League, successfully leading the team to a first-round playoff game and a 9-5 regular-season record as an expansion franchise in its inaugural season. The team paced the Atlantic Division in scoring, averaging 53.1 points per game.

In addition to his coaching career, Franklin is the owner of The Tony Franklin Systems that conducts a series of football seminars for coaches emphasizing winning solutions. USA Today took notice of Franklin's football coaching and teaching abilities in a feature story in 2005 which detailed his consulting successes as a nationally sought-after offensive football coach.

Franklin also received rave reviews for his second book, Victor's Victory, which chronicled the tragic death and spectacular life of 15-year-old Hoover High School football player Victor Dionte Hill, who died from sudden cardiac arrest on the football practice field during one of Franklin's consulting sessions. The book has helped to continue the mission of Cheryl Hill, Victor's mother, to make teachers, coaches, and parents aware of the need for automatic external defibrillators (AED) in every school and youth organization in Alabama.

Franklin received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Murray State in 1979 and 1989, where he was a two-year starter as a running back. He is married to Laura Franklin, and they have three daughters: Chelsea, Caroline and Caitlin.

ART KAUFMAN

Defensive Coordinator, 1st Season

Art Kaufman is in his first season as the defensive coordinator at Cal in 2014. Kaufman took over the position in January after having developed some of the top defenses in the country at multiple stops over his 32-year collegiate career. He is in his 13th campaign as a defensive coordinator at the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision level, having previously served in the role at Cincinnati, North Carolina, Mississippi and Texas Tech. Kaufman was nominated for the prestigious Broyles Award given annually to college football's top assistant coach both at North Carolina in 2011 and Texas Tech in 2012.

"Art has a lot of experience and has already had a real settling influence on our program," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "His experience has made everybody comfortable. He is a great communicator who has a detailed and organized plan on teaching and implementing a defense and a clear vision of what he wants. I was really pleased with the product I saw in the spring and am excited to see our defense continue to get better and better throughout the year. I feel confident that Art Kaufman is the right coach to lead our defense."

"I'm thrilled to have joined the Cal football coaching staff and believe that my coaching experience will help our defense improve quickly," Kaufman said. "I'm looking forward to building a strong defense that will make significant contributions to our success as a football team. Sonny Dykes is in the initial stages of building a tremendous football program at Cal, and it's great to be part of that process early on."

Kaufman was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Cincinnati in 2013 when the Bearcats finished 9-4 overall and played in the Belk Bowl. Kaufman's defense was one of the best in the country a year ago, ranking in the top 10 nationally in both rushing defense (6th, 104.5 ypg) and total defense (9th, 315.6 ypg). Cincinnati was also among the top 30 in 10 of the 11 primary defensive categories tracked in the national stats, including 14th in scoring defense (21.0 ppg), third-down conversion percentage defense (33.1%) and first downs defense (230); 23rd in sacks (2.69 spg) and red-zone defense (76.5%); 25th in team passing efficiency defense (116.75); 26th in tackles for loss (6.80 tflpg); and 29th in passing yards allowed (211.2 ypg).

At Cincinnati he coached first-team All-American Athletic Conference defensive lineman Jordan Stepp in the inaugural season of the league while three Bearcats – defensive lineman Silverberry Mouhon, linebacker Greg Blair and cornerback Deven Drane – were second-team selections on the defensive side of the ball. Blair led the squad with 106 tackles, while Mouhon (9.5 spg) and Stepp (6.0 spg) were first and second on the club in sacks.

The performance of Kaufman's defense last season came on the heels of a 2012 campaign in which he led a complete overhaul of the Texas Tech defense. Inheriting a 2011 unit that ranked 114th nationally in total defense (485.58 ypg), the Red Raiders improved to 38th (367.31 ypg) while ranking second in the Big 12 Conference. Texas Tech was keyed by a pass defense that led the league and ranked 15th in the country (192.00 ypg). The Red Raiders finished 8-5 overall and were victorious at the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Texas Tech defensive lineman Kerry Hyder along with defensive backs Cody Davis and D.J. Johnson were named second-team All-Big 12 in 2012 while Davis was also a first-team Capital One Academic All-America® selection and one of 15 finalists for the prestigious William B. Campbell Trophy also known as the "Academic Heisman". Davis led the team in tackles (101) and interceptions (3), including one that he returned 88 yards for a touchdown, while adding seven pass breakups and 3.5 tackles for loss. Johnson was second on the squad with 90 stops while Hyder finished third with 56 tackles, a team-leading 14.0 tackles for loss and a team co-leading 6.0 sacks. He tallied 10.5 TFL's during Big 12 play to rank third in the league.

Kaufman joined the Red Raiders from North Carolina, where he was the defensive coordinator for the Tar Heels in 2011 and the linebackers coach for three campaigns from 2009-11. Kaufman helped guide the 2011 Tar Heels to a No. 27 ranking in rush defense (123.92 ypg), a No. 48 national ranking in total defense (365.23 ypg) and an appearance against Missouri in the Independence Bowl.

Carolina developed several outstanding linebackers under Kaufman's guidance, including current NFL players Zach Brown (Tennessee), Bruce Carter (Dallas) and Kevin Reddick (New Orleans).

Brown posted strong numbers in his final season in 2011 to earn first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors when he paced the Tar Heels with 105 tackles and co-led the squad with three interceptions and three pass breakups, while adding 13.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. Defensive tackle Quinton Coples also picked up first-team All-ACC honors for the second consecutive season and was selected by the New York Jets in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft with the 16th selection overall.

Reddick (74) and Brown (72) were North Carolina's top two tacklers in 2010, with Brown adding three interceptions that he ran back for 113 yards. Despite injuries to Carter and linebacker Quan Sturdivant, a sixth-round 2011 NFL Draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals, the Tar Heels finished fourth in the ACC and 30th in the country in total defense (338.54 ypg) led by a rushing defense that was also fourth in the league and 22nd nationally (125.62 ypg).

Carolina's linebackers helped lead a unit that finished first in the ACC and sixth in the nation in total defense (269.62 ypg) on the team's way to an 8-5 record and a spot in the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2009. The Tar Heels were 10th in the country against the run (95.62 ypg) and finished 13th in scoring defense (17.08 ppg), ranking first and second in the conference. Carolina was the only team in the country to finish among the top 15 in total defense, rushing defense, third-down efficiency (3rd, 29.4%), tackles for loss (6th, 8.08 tflpg), pass defense (14th, 174.0 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (14th, 105.32). Sturdivant earned first-team All-ACC honors after leading the Tar Heels with 79 stops, while Carter was a second-team all-conference pick.

Prior to his three-year run at North Carolina, Kaufman spent one season coaching the defensive line and special teams at Southern Miss (2008), three coaching linebackers at Middle Tennessee (2005-07), two as the defensive line coach at East Carolina (2003-04), and two as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Arkansas Tech (2001-02).

During his lone season at Southern Miss, the Golden Eagles posted a 7-6 record and won their last five games, including a New Orleans Bowl victory. Kaufman's 2006 team at Middle Tennessee won a co-Sun Belt title and was the school's first bowl squad in 45 seasons, with the Blue Raiders' defense ranking third in the nation in tackles for loss (8.08 tflpg) and 20th in sacks (2.77 spg). His first team at Arkansas Tech was 8-2.

Kaufman coached 10 of the previous 13 seasons over two stints at Mississippi, starting in 1988 with a four-year run working with the defensive ends and linebackers before returning to Ole Miss for six campaigns from 1995-2000 as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

During his first stint at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back bowl appearances during the 1989 (Liberty Bowl) and 1990 (Gator Bowl) seasons for the first time since 1970 and 1971. In his second tour of duty, the Rebels played in four straight bowls (1997-2000); with his 1999 squad ranking fourth nationally in rushing defense (76.9 ypg).

In between his two stints at Mississippi he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech (1992-94). His 1992 team ranked fourth nationally in total defense (256.5 ypg).

Kaufman also coached five seasons at Northwestern State (1983-87), working with the outside linebackers for the first four campaigns before being promoted to defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for his fifth and final season.

Kaufman broke into the coaching business as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 1982 after receiving his bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas at Monticello in 1980. He was a four-year starting linebacker during his collegiate playing days with the Boll Weevils.

A native of Dermott, Ark., Kaufman has three daughters: Tara, Taylor and Madison.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GREG BURNS

Defensive Backs, 1st Season

Greg Burns, a 17-year veteran coach who has been a member of 10 bowl game staffs, is in his first season as the defensive backs coach at Cal in 2014. Burns has spent eight of the last 12 seasons working in the Pac-12 with four campaigns each at USC and Arizona State. Among Burns' 10 bowl games are four BCS bowls all during his time at USC when he was part of a Trojans' coaching staff that won back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004.

"The coaching experience Greg has at the highest levels of college football and his familiarity with the Pac-12 and the type of players the league attracts has already begun to pay dividends," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "Our defensive backs really improved this spring under his tutelage. He's a good communicator and teacher who has a lot of credibility having coached and played in this league. He is a fair and demanding coach who does an excellent job communicating with his student-athletes."

"I'm excited to be a member of the coaching staff at Cal and back in the Pac-12," Burns said. "I have always admired the tradition and excellence of Cal football, and I feel that my experience and skill sets in coaching, teaching and recruiting fit well at Cal and in this conference. I am looking forward to being part of a staff that has us headed in the right direction and add to the program's storied tradition."

In addition to his Pac-12 experience, Burns has other collegiate coaching stops at Idaho, Louisville, Kansas State, Purdue and Massachusetts, where he most recently spent the 2013 season as the defensive backs coach for a unit that ranked No. 42 nationally in passing yards allowed (217.8 ypg).

Burns was at Purdue in 2012 when three of the Boilermakers' five players on All-Big Ten teams came from his secondary in cornerbacks Ricardo Allen and Josh Johnson, and safety Landon Feichter. Purdue ranked No. 43 nationally in pass efficiency defense (124.59).

Burns joined the Purdue staff after spending the previous four seasons (2008-11) as the cornerbacks coach at Arizona State. The Sun Devils led the Pac-10 and finished among the nation's top units in 2009 in total defense (No. 13 NCAA, 297.58 ypg), rushing defense (No. 19 NCAA, 108.58 ypg) and passing defense (No. 26 NCAA, 189.00 ypg). Arizona State also led the conference in rushing defense and was No. 16 nationally (119.67 ypg) the following season in 2010, while also ranking second in the league and among the nation's top units in tackles for loss (No. 8 NCAA, 7.42 tflpg), pass efficiency defense (No. 20 NCAA, 108.58) and scoring defense (No. 26 NCAA, 21.08 ppg). Defensive back Omar Bolden was a first-team All-Pac-10 selection in 2010 and selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, where he has played in all 32 regular-season games over the past two seasons.

Prior to his four campaigns at ASU, Burns spent the 2007 season as defensive backs coach at Kansas State.

Burns' lone season in the NFL came with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the team's defensive backs coach in 2006, where he coached cornerback Ronde Barber in his second and final All-Pro season.

His two national championships in 2003 and 2004 came during a tremendously successful run as the defensive backs coach at USC under Pete Carroll for four seasons from 2002-05, with the Trojans also winners of the BCS National Championship Game in January of 2005 following the 2004 season.

During his time at USC, Burns developed a reputation as one of the brightest young secondary coaches in the country and mentored a number of standout performers, including All-American safeties Troy Polamalu (2002) and Darnell Bing (2005). He also coached first-team All-Pac-10 cornerback Will Poole in 2003. Polamalu was a first-round selection (16th overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2003 NFL Draft, while Poole and Bing were fourth-round picks of the Miami Dolphins and Detroit Lions in 2004 and 2006. Terrell Thomas, who played one season for Burns in 2005, ended up a second-round selection of the New York Giants in the 2008 NFL Draft. In 2004, the Trojans were ninth nationally in pass defense.

Burns previously coached the cornerbacks for four seasons at Louisville from 1998-2001 and produced six All-Conference USA selections during his tenure, including first-teamers Anthony Floyd (2000, 2001) and Antonio Roundtree (1998) while Rashad Holman was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the sixth round of the 2001 NFL Draft. The Cardinals ranked 18th nationally in pass efficiency defense and had 20 interceptions in his final season in 2001. In 2000, Louisville led the nation in interceptions (27) and was 20th in the country in pass efficiency defense. Louisville played in four bowls – 1998 Motor City Bowl, 1999 Humanitarian Bowl, 2000 and 2001 Liberty Bowl – during his tenure.

He started his career with one campaign as the cornerbacks coach at Idaho (1997) with the Vandals intercepting 13 passes.

Burns was a four-year letterwinner (1991-93, 1995) and three-year starter at Washington State, earning honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors in 1992 when the Cougars won the Copper Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Washington State in 1995 and his master's in counseling psychology from the same school in 1997.

Burns participated on the football and track and field teams at Dorsey High School in Los Angeles, where he graduated from in 1991.

He and his wife Crystal have three sons: Cristopher, Carter and Cooper.

ASSISTANT COACHES

GARRET CHACHERE

Linebackers, 2nd Season

Garret Chachere will be in his second season at Cal in 2014 and his second season as the team's linebackers coach after working with the defensive ends in his debut season with the Golden Bears in 2013. Chachere has spent 11 of his 22 seasons as a collegiate coach working with linebackers.

"Garrett has had a chance this season to move back to his natural position of coaching linebackers," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "He has already developed an excellent relationship with Art Kaufman. They look at things the same way, teach the same fundamentals and have the same teaching progression. Our players really enjoy working with Garret and have a lot of respect for his knowledge of the game."

Chachere worked with a group of defensive ends in his first season at Cal in 2013 that came into the campaign lacking a single start at the position at the collegiate level and helped to develop the likes of Todd Barr, Kyle Kragen and Puka Lopa, all of which made significant contributions to the 2013 squad and are expected to play a major role on the team's defense in 2014.

The versatile Chachere has coached six different positions for teams that have reached postseason play on both sides of the ball and with special teams, with four of his last seven teams having played in bowl games.

Prior to his arrival at Cal in 2013, Chachere spent one season as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Southern Miss (2012) following three previous campaigns at Arizona (2009-11). The Wildcats played in bowl games each of his first two seasons at the Holiday Bowl and Alamo Bowl, respectively, when he worked with the team's wide receivers. Arizona was the nation's ninth-ranked passing offense in 2010 (307.69 ypg) with David Douglas catching 52 passes for 515 yards and five touchdowns, while fellow receiver David Roberts contributed 44 catches for 487 yards. Chachere tutored the running backs in his third campaign when the Wildcats had the 16th-ranked team nationally in total offense (465.25 ypg). One of his pupils was Ka'Deem Carey, who in 2012 evolved into a consensus first-team All-American and the nation's top rusher with 1,929 yards (148.38 ypg) after a strong freshman season the previous year under Chachere's tutelage. Carey would later become a fourth-round pick of the Chicago Bears in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Tucson, Chachere spent two seasons as the special teams coordinator at Memphis (2007-08), with the Tigers advancing to play in the New Orleans Bowl in 2007 and the St. Petersburg Bowl in 2008.

In 2008, Chachere helped the Tigers rank 22nd nationally in punt return defense (5.68 ypp), while also being listed among the national leaders in net punting (38th, 36.30 ypg) and kickoff return defense (42nd, 20.01 ypg). Placekicker Matt Reagan was 8-of-11 on field goals and also converted 31-of-32 extra points to lead the Tigers in scoring (55 points) for the second consecutive season. Reagan earned two Conference USA Player of the Week honors.

Memphis returner Michael Grandberry set nearly every school kickoff return record in 2007, including single-game yardage (168 vs. Southern Miss), single-season returns (59), single-season yardage (1,286) and career 100-yard return games (8). He also set the Tigers' all-time records for combined kickoff and punt returns (112) and yardage (2,401).

Chachere spent eight seasons at his alma mater Tulane from 1999-2006, where he coached the Green Wave linebackers throughout his tenure and was also the team's punt return coordinator for his first five seasons. In 2002, the Green Wave defeated host Hawai'i in the Hawai'i Bowl.

During his stint at Tulane, Chachere helped develop linebacker Anthony Cannon, who was drafted by the Detroit Lions in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Cannon earned first-team All-Conference USA honors in 2005 and logged four straight 100-tackle seasons en route to ranking third all-time in Conference USA in tackles at the end of his collegiate career.

Chachere also recruited current Chicago Bears' running back Matt Forté to Tulane. Forté was drafted in the second round of the 2008 NFL Draft and has recorded 1,000-yard rushing seasons in four of his first six NFL campaigns. Forte played in the NFL Pro Bowl following the league's 2011 and 2013 seasons.

Chachere was also a member of the 2005 Tulane coaching staff that endured Hurricane Katrina, providing leadership throughout the team's Hurricane Katrina evacuation and return to campus facilities.

In 2002, Tulane's defense led the nation in turnovers gained (43) and Chachere was also the punt return coordinator for a group that finished second nationally in punt returns (17.29 ypr). Lynaris Elpheage earned first-team All-Conference USA honors as punt returner, ranking fifth nationally in punt returns with a 16.5 yard average.

Prior to his eight-season run at Tulane, Chachere spent the 1998 campaign at Northeast Louisiana, where he was the tight ends coach and worked on the same staff as Sonny Dykes.

Chachere was at Nicholls State as the linebackers coach from 1995-97, with the Colonels earning a spot in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1996 when they posted an 8-4 overall record after being winless the previous season to mark the biggest turnaround in Division I history at the time. One of his top players at the school was Darnell Small, who would go on to play in the Canadian Football League and Arena Football League.

Chachere began his coaching career in 1992 at Cheyney (defensive backs/running backs), followed by subsequent one-season stops at Bloomsburg (defensive backs) and Bucknell (defensive backs/special teams coordinator) prior to his three-season stint at Nicholls State.

Chachere has been active throughout his coaching career with the American Football Coaches Association. He served as the organization's program committee chairman at the 2007 AFCA National Convention, while providing his expertise on linebacker play by speaking at the 2008 convention and publishing several articles on the subject in the AFCA coaches handbook.

A native of New Orleans, La., Chachere played two seasons of college football in his hometown at Tulane in 1987 and 1988, and was a member of the Green Wave's 1987 Independence Bowl team under then-head coach Mack Brown. He received his bachelor's degree in communication from Tulane in 1992.

Chachere prepped in New Orleans at Brother Martin High School, where he was his team's MVP and a captain as a senior in 1986. He earned the New Orleans Sports Foundation Leadership Award in his final prep campaign.

Chachere has three sons – Grant, Noah and Jackson – who currently reside in Germantown, Tenn., with their mother, Lauren Duplessis-Chachere.

ASSISTANT COACHES

PIERRE INGRAM

Run Game Coordinator/Running Backs/Recruiting Coordinator, 2nd Season

Pierre Ingram is in his second season as the running backs coach at Cal in 2014 and his first with the additional responsibilities of run game coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

"Pierre is an enthusiastic young coach that our guys really enjoy playing for," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "He coaches with a lot of passion, is an excellent teacher and does a nice job of relating to our student-athletes and getting to know them on a personal level. He's obviously a very good recruiter and I'm excited about him taking on that role. He really enjoys recruiting, has some great ideas and is helping us organize our effort."

Ingram will have three of his top four rushers – Khalfani Muhammad, Daniel Lasco and Jeffrey Coprich – returning in 2014 from a group that made significant improvements over its final five games last season, adding 37.8 yards per game to its totals from the first seven contests. Ingram's running backs helped Cal record 5,443 yards of total offense last year that was the third-highest total in school history and an average of 453.6 yards per game to rank fourth. Ingram was also instrumental in the recruitment of three running backs in the 2014 recruiting class that expect to be part of the team's immediate plans in Vic Enwere, John Porchivina and Tre Watson.

"We have a great group of running backs that collectively have a vision to make this vision a reality. My efforts in recruiting will follow a set plan our staff created to ensure our prospective student-athletes are the right fit for Cal."

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Ingram served as the running backs coach for Dykes at Louisiana Tech when he was the Bulldogs' head coach from 2010-12, including a final campaign in Ruston in which Louisiana Tech posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in scoring offense and total offense by averaging 51.50 points and 577.92 yards of total offense per game.

Ingram, who was named the 2012 Western Athletic Conference Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com coached running Kenneth Dixon, who was tabbed the WAC Freshman of the Year and earned Freshman All-American honors after breaking Marshall Faulk's NCAA freshman records for rushing touchdowns (27), total touchdowns (28) and points (168). Dixon led the country in scoring with an average of 14.00 points per game while totaling 1,194 yards on 200 carries. He was also second in the WAC and 33rd nationally in rushing with an average of 106.42 yards per game. Capital One Academic All-America® first teamer Ray Holley, a graduate student pursing a degree in counseling with a 3.50 GPA, added 740 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground over 142 rushes.

In addition to leading the country in scoring offense and total offense with an offense that posted the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), Louisiana Tech was among the NCAA's top 20 in 2012 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), fewest sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 spg), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (18th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

In his second season guiding the Louisiana Tech running backs in 2011,

Ingram witnessed an unlikely story unfold as walk-on Hunter Lee, who did not receive a single FBS scholarship offer, stepped up amid injuries and ran for 650 yards on 135 attempts as a true freshman. The ground game churned out 1,901 yards for an offense that averaged 394.62 yards per game as the team won its final seven regular-season contests on its way to a WAC championship and berth in the Poinsettia Bowl.

In his first season at Tech in 2010, Ingram guided Lennon Creer's 1,181-yard rushing campaign that included a 252-yard effort against San Jose State – the seventh-most rushing yards in a single game in Tech history – among five 100-yard rushing performances over his last seven contests. One of the 100-yard contests was a 149-yard rushing effort at No. 2 Boise State, more yards than 12 of Boise's 13 opponents recorded against the Broncos as a team during 2010.

Ingram joined the Bulldogs after winning the 2009 Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national championship at Villanova, where he coached the tight ends as an offensive assistant.

Prior to his championship campaign at Villanova, Ingram served as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M-Commerce during the spring of 2009 and prior to that was the assistant wide receivers coach at Cortland State for two campaigns, where he helped the team to a combined 20-5 mark. The 2007 squad captured the ECAC Division III Northeast Bowl, while the 2008 team reached the NCAA Division III quarterfinal round for the first time in school history. Zacc Guaragno posted 1,053 receiving yards under Ingram in 2008 to become the second wide receiver in school history to record a 1,000-yard receiving season.

Ingram is a 2006 graduate of Middle Tennessee with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts, where he was a four-year letterwinner in football as a wide receiver and garnered the team's Most Dependable Receiver Award in his final season as a senior in 2006 when the Blue Raiders played in the Motor City Bowl. He is currently pursuing a master's of science degree in sport management from Cortland State.

Ingram is married to the former Dani Maye. The couple's daughter, Berkley, was born the night Louisiana Tech defeated San Jose State on October 29, 2011. Ingram paced the sidelines during the game, coaching the backs to 260 yards of rushing offense, and then joined Dani in time for the birth of their daughter.

ROB LIKENS

Assistant Head Coach/Passing Game Coordinator/Outside Receivers, 2nd Season

Rob Likens is in his second season as the assistant head coach and outside receivers coach at Cal in 2014 and his first with the additional responsibilities of passing game coordinator.

"We're excited about Rob taking on his additional role," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "Rob has been around our type of offense for more than a decade so he really has a lot of experience with it. He's a very knowledgeable football coach who is a tireless worker and has a tremendous amount of enthusiasm. He brings a lot of experience and really knows how to attack defenses. Plus, he is someone who really cares about his players and they enjoy playing for and being around him."

"I have been with Sonny from his first year as a head coach," Likens said. "It has been amazing to watch him grow as a leader, evaluator and head coach. He is totally committed to ensuring that our student-athletes are provided with every resource available to earn a world-class meaningful degree. Sonny also has a gift for creating a work environment that inspires everyone around him to give their best efforts and strive to be a better person on a daily basis."

Cal's passing game during Likens' first season with the Golden Bears in 2013 set single-season school records for passing yardage (3,977), pass completions (368) and pass attempts (622), while also establishing new single-game marks during the campaign for passing yardage (521 vs. Washington State) and pass attempts (65 vs. Northwestern).

Likens will have three of his top four receivers in Biletnikoff Award candidates Chris Harper, Kenny Lawler and Bryce Treggs returning from the team's 2013 record-breaking offense and 15 players that accounted for 276 receptions and 2,944 yards of last season's receiving totals.

Treggs' 77 receptions in 2013 ranked fourth on the school's all-time list while Harper's 70 were seventh to give the duo 147 combined catches and make the duo the second-most productive single-season pass catchers in school history behind only the 160 recorded by current NFL players Keenan Allen (98) and Marvin Jones (62) in 2011. Lawler emerged during the second half of the season, catching all five of his team-high touchdown receptions in back-to-back games against Arizona and USC with the three against the Wildcats tying a single-game school record.

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Likens served as an assistant head coach and wide receivers coach for Dykes at Louisiana Tech when he was the Bulldogs' head coach from 2010-12, including a final campaign in Ruston in which Louisiana Tech posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in scoring offense and total offense by averaging 51.50 points and 577.92 yards of total offense per game.

Likens coached 2012 second-team AP All-American and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist Quinton Patton, who was a major contributor to the team's prolific scoring offense and currently a member of the San Francisco 49ers after being selected by the professional team in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

Likens directed one of the most potent wide receiver corps in the country in 2012 led by Patton, who paced the Western Athletic Conference in both per-game receiving yards (116.00 ypg) and receptions (8.67 rpg), while ranking fourth and fifth in the nation, respectively. He finished with totals of 104 receptions, 1,392 receiving yards and 13 touchdown catches.

In addition to leading the country in scoring offense and total offense with an offense that posted the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), Louisiana Tech was among the NCAA's top 20 in 2012 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), fewest sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 spg), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (18th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

Likens coached a group of receivers in 2011 that registered 3,229 receiving yards with 21 touchdown catches during a campaign that included a stretch of seven consecutive wins and a WAC championship. Patton, a 2011 Biletnikoff Award Watch List member, finished the season with 1,202 receiving yards and 11 touchdown catches while becoming the first Bulldog receiver to reach 1,000 yards receiving since 2000.

In his first year at Tech in 2010, Likens oversaw a receiving corps that helped the Bulldogs improve from a No. 91 national ranking in passing offense in 2009 to No. 62 in 2010 despite a revolving door at quarterback through the first third of the season.

Prior to his three-year stint at Louisiana Tech, Likens served for four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Central Connecticut State (2006-09) and led the Blue Devils to more wins than in any other four-year period in school history.

CCSU had winning records during each of Likens' four seasons, capped off with a 9-3 mark in 2009 that included a Northeast Conference title and an appearance in the Gridiron Classic, as he coached the ground game to a top 10 national ranking among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) schools each year.

Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense two times, had three undefeated home records and averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1 ppg). Likens coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers, Walter Payton Award finalists, All-America running backs and NEC Offensive Players of the Year in Justise Hairston and James Mallory.

The Blue Devils averaged 239.18 yards per game on the ground in 2008 to rank seventh in the FCS when the team also paced the Northeast Conference in scoring offense, averaging 30.0 points per game. Mallory rushed for 1,520 yards and earned second-team All-NEC honors, becoming the second player in school history to crack the 1,500 mark in rushing.

Rob Likens

ASSISTANT COACHES

In 2007, CCSU led the NEC in both per-game total offense (387.7 ypg) and rushing offense (257.6 ypg), ranking 10th nationally in the latter.

The Blue Devil offense set numerous school records in 2006, including single-season total yards (4,271) and rushing yards (3,150). CCSU led the nation in rushing yards per game (284.9 ypg) and finished 10th in total offense (386.8 ypg). As a team, CCSU set new single-season marks with 42 rushing touchdowns and 51 touchdowns overall in 11 games.

Hairston set the school's single-season record and was the nation's leading FCS rusher in 2006 with 1,847 yards. He earned AP All-America, AFCA All-America, Sports Network Mid-Major All-America and NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors that season. Hairston was eighth in the final Walter Payton Award balloting, played in the Hula Bowl and Texas vs. the Nation Game, and was a sixth-round pick of the New England Patriots in the 2007 NFL Draft.

In all, CCSU's offense produced eight team records and six individual and single-game marks under Likens. He coached four-first team All-NEC selections, four second-team All-NEC choices and five NEC Offensive Player of the Week honorees, giving him 13 all-conference picks in his four seasons.

Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State (2004-05), where he also worked specifically with the team's quarterbacks and wide receivers. He spent six campaigns at both Temple (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach and North Alabama (1992-97), where he worked with the running backs for the first season of his tenure and the wide receivers for his final five. At North Alabama, he helped the Lions become the first program in NCAA scholarship football to win three consecutive national championships, a feat that no other Division II school has ever accomplished and that has only since been replicated by FCS schools Appalachian State (2005-07) and North Dakota State (2011-13).

Likens played collegiate football as a wide receiver at Mississippi State, earning his bachelor's degree and graduating cum laude in 1990 in math education. He earned his master's degree in math education from North Alabama in 1995.

Likens and his wife, Soni, have one son, Nicolas Cutter.

FRED TATE

Defensive Line, 1st Season

Fred Tate is in his first season as the defensive line coach at Cal in 2014. The 16-year coaching veteran has spent the last two seasons working under first-year Golden Bear defensive coordinator Art Kaufman at Cincinnati and Texas Tech. He also worked on the same coaching staff with Kaufman for two seasons at East Carolina from 2003-04.

"Fred Tate came highly recommended from Art Kaufman," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "The two have had an excellent relationship in the past. They are on the same page and speak the language, which is invaluable. Fred did an excellent job this spring developing our defensive line. He is a very effective teacher and a great communicator with a clear teaching method that our players really enjoy."

"I'm excited to be at Cal on a great staff put together by Sonny and to be reunited with Art," Tate said. "Art and I have had a tremendous amount of success working together, and I'm looking forward to replicating that and improving upon it at Cal. I hit the ground running last spring and look to keep right on moving this fall."

Tate's most recent stint with Kaufman was in 2013 as the defensive tackles coach for a Cincinnati team that finished 9-4 overall and played in the Belk Bowl. Cincinnati's defense was one of the best in the country a year ago, ranking in the top 10 nationally in both rushing defense (6th, 104.5 ypg) and total defense (9th, 315.6 ypg). Cincinnati was also among the top 30 in 10 of the 11 primary defensive categories tracked in the national stats, including 14th in scoring defense (21.0 ppg), third-down conversion percentage defense (33.1%) and first downs defense (230); 23rd in sacks (2.69 spg) and red-zone defense (76.5%); 25th in team passing efficiency defense (116.75); 26th in tackles for loss (6.80 tflpg); and 29th in passing yards allowed (211.2 ypg).

Cincinnati defensive lineman Jordan Stepp earned first-team All-American Athletic Conference honors in the inaugural season of the league while fellow defensive lineman Silverberry Mouhon was a second-team selection. Mouhon (9.5) and Stepp (6.0) were first and second on the club in sacks, with Mouhon ranking third in the league in sacks per game (0.73 spg).

Tate also worked on Kaufman's defensive staff at Texas Tech in 2012, inheriting a 2011 unit that ranked 114th nationally in total defense (485.58 ypg) and improving them to 38th (367.31 ypg) while ranking second in the Big 12 Conference. Texas Tech was keyed by a pass defense that led the league and ranked 15th in the country (192.00 ypg). The Red Raiders finished 8-5 overall and were victorious over Minnesota at the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Defensive lineman Kerry Hyder was a second-team All-Big 12 selection in 2012, leading the team with 14.0 tackles for loss, co-leading the squad with 6.0 sacks and ranking third on the club with 56 tackles. He tallied 10.5 TFL's during Big 12 play to rank third in the league.

In addition to his three previous tenures with Kaufman, Tate has been on coaching staffs at Marshall (2010-11), Tennessee-Chattanooga (2008-09), Southern Miss (2005-06), Middle Tennessee (2002), Southwest Texas State (2001), East Mississippi Community College (2000), Jacksonville State (1998-99) and East Central Community College (1997).

Marshall was victorious in the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl over Florida International in Tate's final season with the Thundering Herd when he coached the defensive line for a defense that ranked first in Conference USA and fifth nationally with an average of 7.85 tackles for loss per game. Marshall's defense was also among the nation's top 20 in fumbles recovered (T14th, 15), fourth-down efficiency (19th, 38.89) and turnovers gained (T19th, 29). Defensive end Vinny Curry was a first-team All-American and the 2011 Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year as well as a first-team all-league choice. Curry capped his career playing under Tate in 2011 with 77 tackles, 22.0 tackles for loss (-110 yards) and 11.0 sacks (-69 yards). His per-game totals for tackles for loss (1.69 tflpg) and sacks (.85 spg) both ranked second in the league, and were fourth and tied for seventh nationally. Curry was selected in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and has played 20 games off the bench for the club over the last two seasons (2012-13).

In his first season with the Thundering Herd in 2010, Tate coached the safeties and saw two of his pupils, Donald Brown and Omar Brown, earn honorable mention All-Conference USA selections.

During his two campaigns at Tennessee-Chattanooga, Tate mentored

Fred Tate

Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-Southern Conference selection Josh Beard, who tied for the national lead in the Football College Subdivision (FCS) and equaled a school record with 12.0 sacks.

Tate coached on bowl staffs during each of his two seasons at Southern Miss with the Golden Eagles finishing with winning records each campaign. Southern Miss was 7-5 in 2005 and defeated Arkansas State in the New Orleans Bowl with defensive lineman Tom Johnson earning first-team All-Conference USA honors. USM finished 9-5 in 2006 and claimed the Conference USA East Division title, played Houston in the Conference USA Championship Game and defeated Ohio University in the GMAC Bowl.

Prior to his two seasons as an outside linebackers and special teams coach on the same staff as Kaufman at East Carolina from 2003-04, Tate served as the defensive line coach at Middle Tennessee in 2002 and Southwest Texas State in 2001, where he guided Clenton Ballard to first-team All-America status (American Football Coaches Association). Ballard spent time on NFL rosters with the Jacksonville Jaguars and San Diego Chargers.

Tate's coaching career began in 1997 at East Central Community College in Mississippi where he coached tight ends and wide receivers. He moved to Jacksonville State in 1998 and served as the defensive line and special teams coach for two seasons with his 1998 squad posting a 7-4 overall record. While with the Gamecocks, he mentored future NFL player Mark Word who spent time with the Kansas City Chiefs and Cleveland Browns. The 2000 season saw him return to the junior college level, coaching the defensive line, and punting and kicking teams at East Mississippi Community College.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Tate enlisted in the United States Army upon graduation in 1986 from North Forrest High School in his hometown. Following his time in the military service, Tate started his collegiate football career with two seasons at East Central Community College, where he was a JC Gridwire All-America selection as a 1994 sophomore and voted the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the National Junior College All-Star Game.

He continued his playing career at Southern Mississippi, where he was a defensive lineman in 1995 and 1996 for a Golden Eagles' team that was a charter member of Conference USA and won the league's first football championship with a 4-1 league mark in his second and final season while finishing with an 8-3 overall record that included a victory over Georgia and a seven-game winning streak.

Tate earned his bachelor's degree in human performance from Southern Miss in 1997.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MARK TOMMERDAHL

Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends/Fullbacks, 2nd Season

Mark Tommerdahl is in his second season as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Cal in 2014 and his first with the additional responsibility of coaching the team's fullbacks.

"Mark Tommerdahl is one of the elite special teams coaches in the country who has been a key member of staffs at the top level of college football," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "He has an impeccable track record in developing top specialists and producing some of the strongest special teams play in the nation. He also does a tremendous job of developing tight ends and will do an excellent job this season in his expanded role of working with fullbacks."

"Cal is a program with a strong long-standing tradition of overall excellence," Tommerdahl said. "Our objectives remain to revive that tradition and build upon it. It is an honor to represent one of the elite academic institutions in the country. We simply need to perform and recruit to the level of this fine institution."

Placekicker Vincenzo D'Amato and punter Cole Leininger received honors after showing great improvement during Tommerdahl's first season at Cal in 2013.

D'Amato was a second-team All-Pac-12 choice of the league's coaches and a third-team selection of Athlon and Phil Steele. He was also a national semifinalist for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, a final candidate for the Senior CLASS Award, an honorable mention Pac-12 All-Academic pick, and played in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl following the season. D'Amato made 17-of-20 (85.0%) field goal attempts to rank tied for second in the Pac-12 and tied for 23rd nationally in field goal percentage. He was also tied for third in the conference and tied for 25th nationally in field goals made per game (1.42 fgmpg).

Leininger was a second-team All-Pac-12 selection according to College Sports Madness after his 42.9-yard punting average that was a full three yards better than his 2012 mark ranked third in the Pac-12 and 33rd nationally. He was also a member of the watch list for the Ray Guy Award honoring the nation's top punter and is expected to return to the list as a 2014 junior.

Tommerdahl's inside receivers group played a key role in a Cal passing game that set single-season school records for passing yardage (3,977), pass completions (368) and pass attempts (622). Cal also established new single-game marks during the campaign for passing yardage (521 vs. Washington State) and pass attempts (65 vs. Northwestern).

Tommerdahl has served on coaching staffs of 13 bowl teams as well as six league champions and two division winners at some of the top Division I football programs in the country over his three decades as a collegiate coach.

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Tommerdahl spent four seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2009-12, including the final three as the special teams coordinator and inside receivers coach under Dykes. During his tenure with the Bulldogs, he tutored a pair of All-Americans in two-time first-team selection punter Ryan Allen (2011, '12) and tight end Dennis Morris (2009), with Allen punting in all 16 regular-season games and both postseason contests for the New England Patriots in 2013 after signing an undrafted free agent contract with the NFL team following his 2012 collegiate season.

Mark Tommerdahl

In addition to leading the country in scoring offense and total offense with a unit that posted the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), Louisiana Tech was among the NCAA's top 20 in 2012 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), fewest sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 spg), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (18th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

Louisiana Tech also led the nation in 2012 in net punting with a 43.51 average behind the performance of Allen, who became the first back-to-back and second two-time winner of the Ray Guy Award that was first given in 2000. Allen led the nation in punting in 2012 with a school-record 48.04 yards per punt average, punting 45 times for 2,162 yards. He had 21 punts of 50 yards or more, including the nation's longest punt of the season with an 85-yarder at New Mexico State. Allen also pinned opponents inside the 20-yard-line on 20 occasions with only five touchbacks.

Allen's 2012 campaign followed a 2011 season in which he was the only player from a non-BCS school to win a national award after averaging 46.12 yards per punt to rank fifth nationally. The Bulldogs were eighth in the country in net punting (40.12 ypg) and also led the nation in kickoff coverage.

In 2010, Louisiana Tech led the WAC and ranked 10th nationally in punt returns with an average of 13.63 yards per return, while ranking fourth in the conference and 25th nationally in kick returns (23.52 ypg). Much of the Bulldogs' prowess was due to the play of Phillip Livas, who led the WAC and ranked sixth nationally with an average of 15.50 yards per punt return. Livas was also fifth in the WAC and 49th nationally in kick returns with a 24.63 yard average. Livas played his final two seasons for Tommerdahl during a career in which he tied an NCAA all-time record with a combined eight kick and punt return touchdowns, bringing back four of each for scores.

Morris garnered All-American honors and was named the Tight End Performer of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards in 2009 with 38 catches for 623 yards and 12 receiving touchdowns that were the most nationally among tight ends that season. In addition, Tommerdahl's punt return squad led the WAC and ranked 25th nationally (12.33 ypr).

Tommerdahl spent the 2008 season as an assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Louisiana-Monroe. He developed first-team All-Sun Belt tight end Kenneth Zacharie and also had a kickoff coverage team that led the conference.

ASSISTANT COACHES

For five seasons from 2003-07, Tommerdahl was the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Texas A&M. During his tenure with the Aggies, Tommerdahl helped lead the program to the Cotton Bowl (2004), Holiday Bowl (2006) and Alamo Bowl (2007).

Tommerdahl's special teams units at Texas A&M were also among the nation's best, ranking in the top 25 in the nation in net punting in 2006 (25th, 37.00 nypp) and 2007 (5th, 39.17 nypp), and in kickoff returns in 2003 (10th, 23.90 ypr), 2006 (3rd, 26.08 ypr) and 2007 (20th, 23.54 ypr).

He coached current Chicago Bears' tight end Martellus Bennett, who ended his Texas A&M career as the program's all-time leader at the position in receptions and yards receiving. During the 2005 season at Texas A&M, Tommerdahl coached a pair of Freshman All-Americans in Bennett and punter Justin Brantly.

Tommerdahl spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons at Alabama as the program's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach, helping the Crimson Tide to the 2001 Independence Bowl and 2002 SEC West Division title when the squad finished 11th in the final AP Top 25.

Tommerdahl also served as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach during stints at TCU (1998-2000), New Mexico (1997) and Minnesota (1995-96), coaching a Lou Groza Award semifinalist at all three schools. He added recruiting coordinator duties at Minnesota.

TCU won a pair of Western Athletic Conference titles in 1999 and 2000 on its way to appearances in the Mobile Alabama Bowl each season. Tommerdahl's special teams groups made significant contributions, with a kickoff return unit that was ranked first nationally both campaigns while his special teams squads led the league in three of four statistical categories each season.

In 1997 at New Mexico, four of the Lobos' special teams units were ranked in the top 20 in the country as the team won the WAC Mountain Division title and played in the Insight.com Bowl.

A native of Fergus Falls, Minn., Tommerdahl began his collegiate coaching career in 1984 with a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Wyoming, where he spent 11 seasons serving in numerous capacities also including offensive coordinator, backfield coach, tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. He helped lead the Cowboys to four bowl appearances and three WAC titles during his tenure.

Tommerdahl earned bachelor's degrees in business and physical education from Concordia College in Minnesota in 1983, and an MBA with an emphasis in marketing from Wyoming in 1986. He is married to the former Annette Jondahl.

ZACH YENSER

Offensive Line, 2nd Season

Zach Yenser is in his second campaign as the offensive line coach at Cal in 2014 after working with an offensive unit in his first season at Cal in 2013 that set single-season school records for passing yards (3,977), pass completions (368) and total plays (1,046). The passing offense finished the regular-season third in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation with an average of 331.4 yards per game that was also the best in school history. Cal's 5,443 yards of total offense was the third-highest total in school history and its average of 453.6 yards per game ranked fourth all-time at Cal.

The offensive line helped the Golden Bears put together its list of achievements on the offensive side of the ball despite being an inexperienced group that started the season with only two returning starters and played the final two thirds of the campaign with one playing a different position that he had started the previous 16 games. Still, Yenser was able to keep the unit together and help the team's rushing game improve by 37.8 yards per game over its last five contests compared to its first seven after the insertion of two freshmen into the starting lineup.

Yenser is expected to have a more experienced group to work with in 2014 with eight players combining to start a total of 51 games during their collegiate careers returning.

"Zach has an opportunity to develop into a really fine young football coach," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "We're excited about his group which should be one of the most improved units on our football team this season. The offensive linemen on our team are comfortable with Zach and enjoy playing for him. They like his enthusiasm and the way that he teaches the game."

"I'm very grateful to come to a place every day where I can work with a group of young men who have a common goal of walking away from this great university with a degree and changing the world," Yenser said.

Prior to his arrival at Cal, Yenser spent three seasons at Louisiana Tech and was hired as the offensive line coach at Troy following the 2012 campaign before eventually following Dykes out to California.

Yenser was the assistant offensive line coach for a 2012 Louisiana Tech squad that posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in both scoring offense (51.50 ppg) and total offense (577.92 ypg), while ranking third in passing offense (350.75), seventh in fewest sacks allowed (0.83 spg), 10th in turnover margin (+1.08 per game) and 17th in rushing offense (227.17 ypg).

He spent his first two seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2010-11 working with the offensive line as a graduate assistant after having previously been an offensive line consultant under Cal offensive coordinator Tony Franklin at Auburn in 2008 and Middle Tennessee State in 2009. Yenser was also a consultant at Texas Tech prior to the 2012 campaign.

Offensive linemen earned four first-team All-WAC honors during Yenser's three seasons at Louisiana Tech, with Stephen Warner being named to the first team in both 2011 and 2012, Kris Cavitt in 2011 and Jordan Mills in 2012. Oscar Johnson and Kevin Sia added second-team all-conference honors in 2012.

Prior to arriving at Louisiana Tech, Yenser spent the 2009 season as an assistant coach at Colquitt County High School, where he helped guide the Packers to an 11-3 record and an appearance in the Georgia 5-A state semifinals.

He was also an offensive line coach at Henderson State in 2008, where his line allowed only 13.0 sacks in 430 passing attempts for an offense that racked up 13 school records and one All-Gulf South Conference selection.

Yenser began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Troy, where he was the offensive graduate assistant for the 2007 season, working specifically with the offensive line and special teams, and helping the Trojans to a share of the Sun Belt Conference title and an 8-4 overall record. The Trojans led the Sun Belt in scoring offense (34.00 ppg) and total offense (452.83 ypg), with a national ranking of 16th in the latter.

Yenser was a four-year starter at Troy and at one point appeared in 42 consecutive games from 2003-06 before graduating from the school with a bachelor's degree in communication and fine arts in 2007. He helped the Trojans win the Sun Belt title and the New Orleans Bowl as a 2006 senior when he was a team captain and all-conference selection.

Yenser received his master's degree in science with a concentration in sports performance from Louisiana Tech in 2012.

DAMON HARRINGTON

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, 2nd Season

Damon Harrington is in his second season at Cal as the head strength and conditioning coach for the football program in 2014. Harrington works directly with the Cal football program on a day-to-day basis and oversees four assistant strength and conditioning coaches in his role.

"Damon is one of the best strength and conditioning coaches in college football and a critical part of our coaching staff," head coach Sonny Dykes said. "In college football today with the amount of time they spend with the student-athletes your strength and conditioning coach is as important as any member of the coaching staff. Damon is exactly who we want in that role. He has a no-nonsense blue-collar personality and demands a lot from players but at the same time cares deeply about them. They have a tremendous amount of respect for him as a person and his knowledge and ability to teach and make them better."

"Everything revolves around developing leadership and a team attitude," Harrington said. "Individuals don't win games, teams do. The team is always more important than the individual. The more our players trust each other the better chance they have to win and be successful."

Harrington instituted the Swagger Games in January of 2014 during his first full offseason at Cal. The program features football student-athletes incorporating six areas of competition (academic, agility, combative, self-discipline, speed, strength) into a program designed to improve leadership and mentality fortitude.

"The response from our players has been great," Harrington said. "It's all about developing mental fortitude and toughness as well as leadership. We have seen our players grow and become more of a team this offseason. We put them into leadership roles and have watched them take control of their team."

Harrington had two stints as the head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater Louisiana Tech prior to his arrival at Cal, serving in the role from January of 2006 to May of 2013 and also from 2002-03 after spending two previous seasons as an assistant in the Bulldogs' strength and conditioning program (2000-01). He was also the assistant director of player development at Georgia Tech from 2004-05.

Harrington was instrumental in improving Louisiana Tech's strength and conditioning program, with Bulldog football players breaking 26 strength records (by position) during his final seven years with the school. During the same period, Louisiana Tech had seven fourth-quarter come-from-behind wins.

During his time at Louisiana Tech, Harrington and his staff implemented the Dawg Fight Program, which incorporated ATTITUDE, TEAM, DISCIPLINE, TOUGHNESS and EFFORT. The program was designed to prepare the team's players to be as physically and mentally tough as possible in order to play hard for four quarters and make the plays at the end of games that ultimately lead to victory.

Harrington began his collegiate playing career at Louisiana Tech as a walk-on in 1995 before earning a scholarship his sophomore season. He started every game at linebacker during his final two campaigns with 121 tackles in 1998 and 122 in 1999. Harrington earned All-Louisiana honors both seasons, while also being named to the All-Independent team by Football News as a senior in 1999.

Harrington earned his bachelor's degree from Louisiana Tech in fitness and wellness in 2000 and completed his master's degree from the school in sports science in 2002. Harrington holds a certification in strength and conditioning from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

Harrington and his wife, Meg, have one son, Luke, and one daughter, Addie.

BIG GAME HISTORY

On Nov. 22, 2014, California and Stanford will play the 117th Big Game to continue one of the greatest rivalries in college football. The series, which dates back to 1892 is tied for the ninth longest running series between Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams and has featured some of the most memorable finishes in the history of the sport.

Cal enters this year's matchup at Kabam Field at California Memorial Stadium trailing the all-time series, 59-46-11, and have dropped the last four consecutive contests.

The Cal-Stanford series has been a remarkably close rivalry, with the Big Game having been determined by a touchdown or less 52 times.

The status of the rivalry as one of the truly great sporting spectacles across the country was undoubtedly established in the very first game, when Stanford upset Cal, 14-10, on March 19, 1892, in a contest played on a field at the corner of Haight and Stanyan streets in San Francisco. Stanford manager Herbert C. Hoover, later to become the 31st president of the United States, and his Cal counterpart counted the gate receipts and reported a then-staggering sum of $30,000.

The game continued to grow in popularity with capacity crowds becoming the norm. In 1923, Cal opened Memorial Stadium with a 9-0 win to cap an undefeated season. Stanford and Cal also opened Stanford Stadium in 1921 with the Bears winning, 42-7, en route to the Rose Bowl.

Cal achieved great success in the series under Pappy Waldorf, who retired with a 7-1-2 record vs. Stanford from 1947-56. The 1949 game was highlighted by Jim Monachino's 84-yard run – still the longest rush by a Cal player in Big Game history

Five Big Games have been won on the final play, starting with the 1972 meeting in Berkeley. Cal faced fourth down from the Stanford seven-yardline with three seconds to go. But Vince Ferragamo completed a touchdown pass to a diving Steve Sweeney, giving the Bears a 24-21 win.

Two years later, Stanford's Mike Langford booted a 50-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Cardinal to a 22-20 decision over the Bears.

In 1982, Cal won on a five-lateral, 57-yard kickoff return that will forever be remembered as "The Play." Trailing 20-19, the Bears received Stanford's kick with just four seconds left. Cal proceeded to travel the length of the field and march through the Stanford Band to produce an improbable 25-20 victory.

The Cardinal prevailed in 1990 by scoring nine points in the final 12 seconds. John Hopkins connected on a 37-yard field goal as time ran out for a 27-25 win.

For the 100th renewal of the series, the teams donned uniforms representative of the ones they wore more than a half-century earlier. On the night prior to the Nov. 21, 1997 contest, a gala event dubbed the "Big Auction" raised more than $1 million in scholarship funds for each school.

Finally, in 2000, Cal and Stanford played the first overtime game in the history of the series, with the Cardinal emerging 36-30 winners.

In last year's Big Game at Stanford Stadium, Stanford was a 63-13 winner, increasing its winning streak in the series to four for the first time since enjoying a seven-game win streak from 1995-2001.

Cal won seven of eight meetings from 2002-09.

THE AXE

The Stanford Axe, the trophy awarded to the winner of the Big Game every year, actually made its debut on the eve of a baseball game between the rival universities on April 13, 1899. On that afternoon at a pre-game rally, a group of Stanford students introduced the instrument to decapitate a straw man adorned in California blue and gold, much to the delight of the Indian faithful who chanted "Give 'em the axe" while the proceedings continued.

The next day, Stanford rooters taunted their Cal counterparts by cutting pieces of blue and gold ribbon with The Axe and by using it to chop at a designated piece of wood whenever the Indians made a good play.

Cal rallied for an upset over Stanford and the Golden Bear fans were so overcome with emotion that a group of Cal men wrestled The Axe away from the Stanford students and smuggled it across the bay via ferry. The Axe was placed in a safe at a Berkeley bank, to be removed once a year for the Axe Rally.

By 1933, both sides decided that The Axe would make an ideal Big Game trophy. It was mounted on a plaque that lists the scores of each game since 1933.

BOWL HISTORY

ROSE BOWL

CALIFORNIA 28
OHIO STATE 0

College football may never again witness the sheer dominance displayed by California's legendary "Wonder Teams" of the 1920s, and the 1920 football team, in particular, will forever be remembered as one of the sport's all-time great teams. Under the genius of coach Andy Smith, the Golden Bears completely dismantled opponents en route to an 8-0 record and made their first appearance in the Rose Bowl. Despite their record and having outscored opponents by a total margin of 482-14, the Bears entered the contest as an underdog. Possibly because some Easterners had not yet developed much respect for sutdent-athletes on the West Coast, a respected Ohio State team was predicted to beat Cal by six points.

The Bears wasted little time in refuting such predictions, as Pesky Sprott scored a touchdown early in the first quarter to give California a 7-0 lead. Smith's team was able to score two more touchdowns in the second quarter while a ferocious Bear defense held Ohio State scoreless for a 21-0 halftime lead. One of the scores came on a piece of Wonder Team trickery, as Sprott pitched the ball to end Brick Muller on a reverse who heaved the ball over 50 yards to Brodie Stephens for the touchdown. That play helped Cal break the game open and is thought of as one of the most famous plays in the history of the Rose Bowl. The Bears subsequently earned the unofficial national title.

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON 0

California's Wonder Team of 1921 defeated every opponent they faced in the regular season, scoring a total of 167 points against conference opponents while only allowing 10. California took a 9-0 record into its second straight Rose Bowl, and although the Bears were predicted to record an easy victory, steady rains had reduced the field to a quagmire, and coach Andy Smith predicted a 0-0 tie. The Bears were fortunate to escape with that, as they only gained 49 yards in total offense and had two first downs while Washington and Jefferson had a 36-yard touchdown run called back on an offside penalty. The Bears original strategy to use a wide-open passing attack was impossible given the condition of the field, and they instead had to rely entirely on power. The results were almost disastrous for the Bears, but Archie Nisbet averaged 39.7 yards on 13 punts and deserved much credit for keeping the Presidents from the end zone.

Washington and Jefferson had a distinct advantage in maturity as most of the men on its team were older than the average college player, and California originally objected to having to play a team from a school whose scholarship requirements were far below that of California. The relatively unknown school representing the East was able to keep the Bears from scoring in the swamp-like condition of the field and put an end to California's winning streak at 18 games.

GEORGIA TECH 8
CALIFORNIA 7

The Rose Bowl of 1929 will be remembered forever as one of the most amazing and most talked about games played in the history of collegiate football. California faced an undefeated Georgia Tech squad in a very closely contested battle that was made most memorable thanks to a single play by California's Roy Riegels. After a scoreless first quarter, the Bears threatened by moving the ball to Georgia Tech's 25-yard-line. They were unable to get any farther, however, and possession was lost on downs. The next play became one of the most famous (or infamous) of all time. Riegels, California's All-American center, placed his name in the game's lore when Georgia Tech's Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Bears' Benny Lom at the Georgia Tech 30. Riegels scooped up the fumble and started in the right direction, but suddenly he spun around and headed the wrong way. Riegels had reached the Cal one-yard-line before Lom was able to spin him back around, only to be tackled by Georgia Tech. The play led to a safety when the Engineers blocked Lom's subsequent punt.

Georgia Tech had a 2-0 lead at halftime, then scored again in the third quarter for an 8-0 lead going into the fourth quarter. The Bears finally scored late in the fourth quarter when Lom passed to Irv Phillips in the end zone.

ALABAMA 0

California returned to the Rose Bowl with the "Thunder Team" of 1937. With a devastating offensive backfield and a rock-solid defense, the Golden Bears trampled their opponents in the regular season, posting a 9-0-1 record and scoring a total of 201 points while allowing only 33. The Bears, under coach Stub Allison, recorded six shutouts against opponents and utilized a punishing ground game which not only earned the team the nickname "The Thunder Team" but landed the undefeated squad a berth in the Rose Bowl.

In the Rose Bowl of 1938, the Bears recorded an impressive victory over Alabama, 13-0. California relied on its brilliant backfield of Vic Bottari and Sam Chapman to pave the way on offense. And on defense, the Bears rendered the Crimson Tide offense ineffective, holding Alabama scoreless. Following a fumble recovery by Perry Schwartz in the second quarter, the Bears marched 61 yards and scored on a four-yard run by Bottari. The only other score came early in the third quarter, when Bottari added a second touchdown on another four-yard run, making the final margin 13-0. California had completed an undefeated season for the first time since the Wonder Teams of the 1920s, and was rewarded with its most recent national championship.

NORTHWESTERN 20

Pappy Waldorf will always be remembered as one of the greatest coaches ever at California, and his 1948 team was the first of three consecutive squads he would lead to the Rose Bowl. The Bears of 1948 crushed their opponents en route to an undefeated 10-win regular season and a berth in the Rose Bowl of 1949. The Bears scored nearly three times as many total points as they allowed, and proved themselves as the top team on the West Coast.

The Rose Bowl of 1949 was billed as a battle of wits, as it pitted Pappy Waldorf against one of his former players, Northwestern coach Bob Voights. It proved to be an outstanding game, as the Bears matched the running of Jackie Jensen and Jack Swaner against Frank Aschenbrenner, Ed Tunnicliff and Art Murakowski of Northwestern. Aschenbrenner opened the scoring with a 73-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, but Jensen returned the favor with a 67-yard scoring run of his own on the next series. The game may have been decided on a controversial touchdown in the second quarter, when Murakowski scored from one yard out as he fumbled into the end zone. With Jensen sidelined by leg cramps, the Bears took the lead, 14-13, in the third quarter on a run by Swaner. Northwestern came back, however, to score the winning touchdown on a 43-yard run by Tunnicliff with 2:59 left in the game. Although the Bears lost the game, the final Associated Press Poll still ranked California fourth in the nation.

CALIFORNIA 14

The Golden Bears entered the 1950 Rose Bowl with a perfect 10-0 regular season record and what many considered to be the West Coast's finest post-World War II team. Under coach Pappy Waldorf, the 1949 Bears were an even more dominant team than the previous year's Rose Bowl team. Cal scored an average of over 30 points per contest while only allowing slightly over 11 points per game in the regular season.

The Bears had built a 7-0 halftime lead on a seven-yard run by Jim Monachino, but Ohio State scored 14 unanswered points to open a 14-7 lead at the end of the third quarter. Monachino stunned the Buckeyes early in the final period when his 44-yard touchdown run tied the score at 14-14, but the Bears were to be denied once again. A bad punt by Bob Celeri gave Ohio State the ball deep in California territory late in the game and Ohio State's Jim Hague kicked a 17-yard game-winning field goal with 1:57 left in the contest. The Bears had managed to lose two consecutive Rose Bowls, but if it was any consolation, the final Associated Press Poll ranked the Golden Bears third in the country.

MICHIGAN 14
CALIFORNIA 6

Pappy Waldorf took his Golden Bears team of 1950 to a third consecutive Rose Bowl. Again the Bears entered the Rose Bowl as an undefeated team that had laid waste to the Pacific Coast Conference. And once again California's string of hard luck Rose Bowl defeats continued. The Bears appeared ready to give coach Waldorf his first post-season victory, as they entered the game with a 9-0-1 record, having outscored opponents 218-76 during the regular season.

On the third play of the game, Pete Schabarum exploded on a 73-yard touchdown run that was wiped out because of a penalty. The Bears went ahead 6-0 in the second quarter on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Jim Marinos to Bob Cummings, and it looked as if the Bears might get that elusive Rose Bowl victory. After halftime, however, the Wolverines dominated the action and with only 5:37 left in the game, Michigan took its first lead. Moments later they added a second touchdown to secure a 14-6 win.

Although Pappy was never able to lead California to a Rose Bowl victory, the Golden Bears compiled a 53-9-1 record under coach Waldorf from 1947-52. Even after the Bears lost to Michigan in 1951, California was ranked as high as the fourth best team in the nation in the final polls (No. 4 UPI, No. 5 AP), making it three straight seasons that the Bears had finished among the top five teams in the country.

IOWA 38

California's last Rose Bowl appearance was one that many Old Blues would like to forget. Behind quarterback Joe Kapp and halfback Jack Hart, the Bears defeated both USC and UCLA en route to a 7-3 regular season record and the Pacific Coast Conference title. Cal was the premier team on the West Coast and on January 1, 1959, the Bears faced Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

Cal wasn't given much of a chance of upending Iowa and that played out true to form as the Hawkeyes recorded a convincing 38-12 victory. The Bears could do little to stop Iowa's powerful rushing game, as the Hawkeyes broke the Rose Bowl record for rushing yardage (429) and total offense (516). Iowa's Bob Jeter erased another Rose Bowl record with an 81-yard touchdown run and finished with 194 yards on only nine carries. Iowa had a commanding 20-0 halftime lead, then increased it to 32-6 after three quarters. Hart was able to score a pair of second half TDs on two runs, but it was hardly enough to turn the tide.

GARDEN STATE BOWL

TEMPLE 28

California returned to post-season play for the first time in 20 years at the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Behind quarterback Rich Campbell, Cal featured a good offense and a solid defense that only yielded 15 points per contest in the regular season. The Bears won their first two and last two games of the year, all on the road, including impressive victories over Washington State and Stanford to bring home the Axe.

Facing Temple in the Garden State Bowl was no easy task for the Bears, as California failed to answer the Owls' rushing attack and suffered a 28-17 defeat. The Owls took control of the game early, scoring on their first three possessions to open a 21-0 first quarter lead. Campbell put the Bears back in the game on a pair of second quarter touchdown passes to Matt Bouza and Joe Rose. The scored remained 21-14 Temple until the fourth quarter when Mick Luckhurst's 34-yard field goal pulled California within four at 21-17. That was as close as the Bears were able to come, however, as Temple scored another touchdown late in the game to secure the win.

COPPER BOWL

WYOMING 15

The 1990 Golden Bears surprised the college football world by refuting predictions that they would be a last place team, capturing a 6-4-1 record and finishing in the top half of the conference for the first time since 1979. Perhaps most memorable in the regular season, California put an end to "The Streak" by beating UCLA at Memorial Stadium and making a late rally to tie USC in Los Angeles. Under coach Bruce Snyder, the Bears awakened from their hibernation of the 1980s and were hungry for their first bowl victory in more than half a century.

The Bears offense, which was very potent during the regular season, had its poorest showing of the season, netting only 261 total yards. Fortunately, California's defense rose to the occasion to yield a season-low 15 points. Quarterback Mike Pawlawski fired a 25-yard touchdown pass to Brian Treggs in the second quarter to give the Bears a lead they would never relinquish. Robbie Keen nailed a 46-yard field goal in the third quarter, and fullback Greg Zomalt bulled into the end zone from four yards out early in the fourth as the Bears built a 17-9 advantage. In the final minutes of the game, the Bears had to hold off a Cowboy rally that included a 70-yard punt return for a touchdown. However, California stuffed the two-point conversion attempt to seal the victory.

CITRUS BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1992

CLEMSON 13

Led by Mike Pawlawski and Russell White, the Golden Bears put more points on the board than any California squad since the Wonder Team of 1920. The Bears brought a 9-2 record into their first Jan. 1 bowl game in 33 years, capping a season in which they scored a modern-day record 86 points against Pacific, won dramatic come-from-behind games at Arizona and UCLA, and scored more points than any team in history against USC, a 52-30 whipping at Memorial Stadium.

California faced a very tough Clemson squad that had one of the strongest defenses in college football. The Bears, however, exploding for 17 first quarter points to leap to open a comfortable lead before the Tigers knew what hit them. Among the first quarter highlights was a 72-yard punt return for a touchdown by Brian Treggs that just about crushed any hope Clemson had of a comeback victory, as a ferocious Bear defense kept the Tigers at bay for the rest of the afternoon. White rushed for a 103 yards on 22 carries against a run defense that had not allowed a 100-yard runner in nearly four years, and the Golden Bears proved to a national television audience that they were indeed one of the elite Top 10 teams in the nation.

Riding a roller coaster of a regular season that began with five straight wins only to be followed by four consecutive losses and then three more victories, California received a bid to the inaugural Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. The Bears scored on four of their first five possessions and completely shut down the Iowa offensive attack, limiting the Hawkeyes to just 90 yards of total offense in the 37-3 victory.

After three Doug Brien field goals gave Cal a 9-0 lead 20 minutes into the contest, quarterback Dave Barr hit Mike Caldwell for a six-yard score. Linebacker Jerrott Willard followed by picking off a pass and rumbling 61 yards for the touchdown as time ran out in the first half to give Cal a 23-0 margin heading to the locker room. Barr, who passed for two more scores in the second half to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke and Brian Remington, finished the game 21-of-28 for 266 yards, while Lindsey Chapman led the rushing attack with 89 yards. As a team, the Bears ended the contest with an impressive time of possession advantage of 43:14 to 16:46. The victory lifted Cal into the final national polls (No. 24 Coaches/No. 25 AP).

ALOHA BOWL

DECEMBER 25, 1996

NAVY 42
CALIFORNIA 38

In a game that followed a pattern established throughout the season, Cal provided plenty of offensive fireworks, but couldn't hold on in a 42-38 loss to Navy at the Aloha Bowl. Cal seemed to have the game well in hand with a 10-point lead late in the contest, but Navy rallied for a pair of touchdowns in the final eight minutes.

The game got off to a bang when Cal's Deltha O'Neal returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a score. Then the Bears settled into their offense, seeming to score at will in the first half, putting together drives of 81, 73, 35 and 61 yards en route to taking a 35-28 halftime lead. Quarterback Pat Barnes threw for three scores, two to wideout Bobby Shaw and one to tight end Sean Bullard, and O'Neal added a 31-yard TD scamper.

However, Cal could manage only a 41-yard Ryan Longwell field goal in the second half, before Navy put on its late rush that culminated on a 10-yard game-winning TD run by backup QB Ben Fay with 1:41 left in the contest.

VIRGINIA TECH 49

After 98 points and 1,081 yards of offense, the Insight Bowl came down to a 35-yard field goal try, and Tyler Fredrickson made the final kick of his Cal career as time expired to give the Bears a 52-49 victory over Virginia Tech.

Cal's Aaron Rodgers flirted with 400 yards passing in an aerial duel that saw both teams rally from 14-point deficits. Rodgers was 27-of-35 passing for 394 yards and two TDs. He also ran for two scores and was named the game's offensive MVP.

Chase Lyman, starting in place of injured wide receiver Geoff McArthur, caught five passes for a Cal bowl-record 149 yards, including a 33-yarder from Rodgers for a touchdown.

Rodgers, who was 15-for-17 for 245 yards in the second half, scored on an eight-yard option play to put Cal ahead 42-28 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Virginia Tech came back as DeAngelo Hall reversed his field for a 52-yard punt return TD that tied the game at 49-49 with 3:11 remaining.

The winning drive came after Virginia Tech's subsequent kickoff went out of bounds, giving Cal the ball on the 35. Rodgers completed three passes to the Hokie 20-yard line, and a five-yard run by J.J. Arrington set up Fredrickson's winning field goal on the game's final play.

TEXAS TECH 45
CALIFORNIA 31

Perhaps pining for a Rose Bowl bid that was snatched away by voters in the final week, Cal came up against the vaunted Texas Tech aerial attack led by Sonny Cumbie and fell, 45-31, in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Cumbie threw for a career-high 520 yards and three touchdowns, as 21st-ranked Texas Tech upended the Golden Bears.

Cal's J.J. Arrington became just the third running back in Pac-10 history and the first for California to rush for 2,000 yards in a season when he reached the milestone against the Red Raiders. The senior carried 25 times for 173 yards against Tech to finish the year with a school-record 2,018 yards. His two-yard run in the first quarter was his 15th rushing touchdown of the year, breaking Cal's season record that has later been tied by Justin Forsett (2007) and Jahvid Best (2008).

Tech had four scoring drives that took under two minutes each. Trailing 14-7 after the first quarter, the Red Raiders scored 24 straight points and held a commanding 31-14 lead by early in the third quarter.

Cal quarterback Aaron Rodgers threw an 11-yard TD pass to Garrett Cross and scored on a 1-yard sneak, both in the final quarter.

LAS VEGAS BOWL

Marshawn Lynch rushed for career highs of 194 yards and three touchdowns to win the game's MVP award, and DeSean Jackson caught two scoring passes before Cal's defense held off BYU for a 35-28 victory.

Junior Steve Levy passed for 228 yards in his second career start for the Bears, who held off BYU's fourth-quarter comeback in a high-octane game that featured 915 total yards.

Cal took a 35-14 lead into the final quarter after Lynch's 35-yard scoring run and Jackson's exceptional 22-yard diving TD catch in the third. But BYU quarterback John Beck responded with scoring passes to Jonny Harline and Todd Watkins, whose nine-yard grab with 5:35 left cut Cal's lead to the final seven-point margin.

The Bears missed a 50-yard field goal with 2:20 to play in the fourth, but the Cougars moved just seven yards before Beck's arm was hit by Cal lineman Phillip Mbakogu on the ensuing series. Daymeion Hughes intercepted the wobbling pass to seal the victory.

The Bears' stars were the difference. Jackson scored on a 42-yard romp through the BYU secondary three seconds before halftime, while Lynch had scoring runs of 3, 23 and 35 yards along with a handful of jaw-dropping second-effort rushes. His 194 yards rushing and three touchdowns on the ground also were Cal bowl records.

CALIFORNIA 45
TEXAS A&M 10

California posted its largest margin of victory in its bowl history with a 45-10 win over Texas A&M.

In his final game in a Golden Bear uniform, Marshawn Lynch rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns to earn the game's co-offensive MVP honors. Justin Forsett was the game's leading rusher with 124 yards, and also found the end zone in the fourth quarter on an eight-yard dash.

Quarterback Nate Longshore completed 19-of-24 passes for 235 yards and a touchdown, en route to co-offensive MVP honors. Longshore also scored a touchdown on the ground in the first quarter to even the score at 7-7.

Not to be overshadowed by the offense, linebacker Desmond Bishop recorded a game-high 12 tackles to earn the game's Defensive MVP honors.

The Cal defensive unit was spectacular, allowing just 10 points, including a shutout in the second half. San Diego native Mickey Pimentel recorded seven tackles, while Eddie Young intercepted a pass (his first career INT) in the fourth quarter to highlight the other defensive notables.

ARMED FORCES BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 2007

CALIFORNIA 42
AIR FORCE 36

California scored its largest comeback victory in a bowl game with a 42-36 win over Air Force.

The Falcons' crisp option offense kept the Golden Bears guessing through the first 20 minutes as Air Force scored on two drives, then pushed in another seven points after a Bear miscue on a kickoff.

However, with Cal backup quarterback Kevin Riley stepping in under center, the Cal offense came to life. The freshman signal-caller connected with DeSean Jackson for a 40-yard score and found fellow standout receivers Lavelle Hawkins and Robert Jordan for touchdowns to pull the Bears within three, 24-21, midway through the third quarter.

Cal ran a relentless ground attack behind tailback Justin Forsett, who scored a pair of TDs before Riley put the game away with a nifty option run for a 42-30 advantage.

Riley earned MVP honors by connecting on 16-of-19 passes for 269 yards and three TDs. Forsett tallied 140 yards rushing and Thomas DeCoud paced the defense with 10 tackles. Jordan caught six catches for 148 yards.

EMERALD BOWL

DECEMBER 27, 2008

MIAMI, FLA. 17
CALIFORNIA 24

California played its first bowl game ever in the Bay Area and made its hometown fans happy with a 24-17 victory over Miami, Fla.

Cal jumped out to an early 14-0 first quarter lead on a pair of Jahvid Best touchdown runs but Miami eventually came back to tie the contest at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. The game remained tied until late in regulation when Nate Longshore connected with Anthony Miller on a two-yard scoring strike with 2:37 to go. The winning touchdown was set up moments earlier when Zack Follett forced a fumble deep in Hurricane territory and Cameron Jordan returned it to the Miami two-yard line.

Miami was able to put together eight plays on an ensuing drive but time ran out on the Hurricanes after reaching the Bears' 37-yard line.

Best capped a tremendous season for Cal by rushing for an Emerald Bowl record 186 yards and two touchdowns, marking his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game and eighth of the season.

The Golden Bears also set several other school bowl records, including the team's 10.0 tackles for loss, Follett's bowl-record-tying 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, a 74-yard first quarter passing play between Longshore and Verran Tucker, and Jordan's seven-yard fumble return.

POINSETTIA BOWL

DECEMBER 23, 2009

UTAH 37
CALIFORNIA 27

The Golden Bears jumped out to a two-touchdown lead but could not prevail as Utah's Jordan Wynn threw for a career-high 338 yards and three touchdowns to rally the Utes to a 37-27 victory over California in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Bears, in a bowl game for the school-record seventh straight year, had their four-game postseason winning streak snapped. The Utes scored 27 straight points to win their ninth straight bowl game, the longest streak in the country and tied for the second-longest ever following the 2009 season.

Shane Vereen, who scored twice, became the seventh Cal back to gain more than 100 yards in a bowl, finishing with 122 yards on 20 carries. Vereen started the scoring with a 36-yard touchdown run and Eddie Young intercepted Wynn on the first play of Utah's next drive, returning it 31 yards for a score.

But Utah's defense shut down Cal while the Utes offense on its last four possessions of the first half. Cal finally scored again on a 1-yard run by Vereen with 39 seconds left in the third quarter to put the Bears within six at 27-21 before Utah kicked a 25-yard field goal to pull away.

HOLIDAY BOWL

TEXAS 21

Playing in the Holiday Bowl for the third time in school history, the Longhorns topped the Golden Bears, 21-10, in the 2011 Bridgepoint Education Holiday Bowl at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, CA. In addition, Cal fell to 0-5 all-time against Texas.

The Bears jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a 47-yard field goal by Giorgio Tavecchio, but the Bears could only manage one more score in the contest. Isi Sofele scampered six yards for Cal's lone touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the second half to take a brief 10-7 lead.

Texas quarterback David Ash added his name to the list of quarterbacks who've caught a touchdown pass in the Holiday Bowl and he also threw for one score. Ash caught a 4-yard pass from wide receiver Jaxon Shipley in the second quarter to join BYU's Steve Young, Texas A&M's Bucky Richardson and Oregon's Harrington as quarterbacks who've caught touchdown passes in the Holiday Bowl. Ash would later throw a 47-yard touchdown pass to Marquise Goodwin, who made a nice over-the-shoulder catch in full stride. That score gave the Longhorns a 14-10 lead and proved to clinch the win for Texas.

Keenan Allen led the Bears with nine catches for 82 yards.

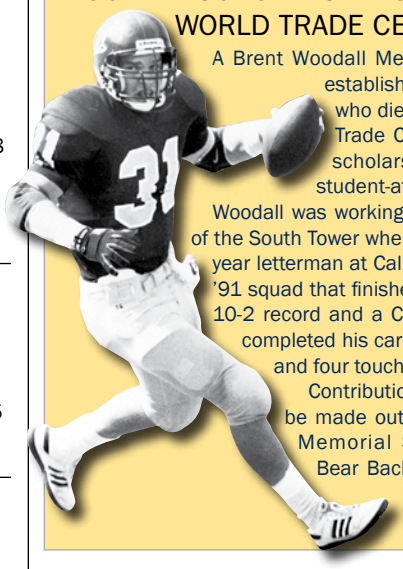
WOODALL SCHOLARSHIP CREATED FOLLOWING WORLD TRADE CENTER TRAGEDY



A Brent Woodall Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established to honor the former Cal tight end who died in the attacks on New York's World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. The scholarship will provide funding for future student-athletes to play Cal football.

Woodall was working as a stock trader on the 89th floor of the South Tower when the building was hit. He was a four-year letterman at Cal (1988-91) and a key member of the '91 squad that finished ranked No. 8 in the nation after a 10-2 record and a Citrus Bowl victory over Clemson. He completed his career with 55 receptions for 646 yards and four touchdowns.

Contributions to the Woodall Scholarship should be made out to the U.C. Regents/Brent Woodall Memorial Scholarship Fund and mailed to Bear Backers, University of California Athletic Department, 195 Haas Pavilion, Berkeley, CA 94720.

HALL OF FAMERS

The Cal Athletic Hall of Fame, which is located near the Kabam Field at California Memorial Stadium Field Club, honors the greatest Golden Bears in school history. Founded in 1986, the Hall features 256 individuals and six rowing teams. The following pages highlight the careers of all 76 Cal football players who are members of the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame.

TED ALBRECHT (Inducted 2000)

A standout offensive tackle for the Bears from 1974-76, Albrecht earned first team Associated Press All-American honors as a senior and went on to become a first round NFL Draft choice of the Chicago Bears. A two-time first team All-Pac-8 selection, he played alongside Joe Roth, Chuck Muncie and Wesley Walker in 1975 on one of the greatest offensive teams in school history. During that '75 season, he helped the Bears earn a share of the conference title, lead the NCAA in total offense yards and set a Cal modern record for most points in a season.

LEONARD "STUB" ALLISON (1997)

As Cal's head coach from 1935-44, Allison compiled a 10-year record of 58-42-2 and guided the Bears to a 13-0 Rose Bowl victory over Alabama in 1938. He was coach of Cal's "Thunder Teams," and his 1937 squad finished with a 10-0-1 mark and a No. 2 national Associated Press ranking. Among the All-Americans to play under Allison were Bob Herwig, John Meek, Sam Chapman, Jon Baker, Vic Bottari, Larry Lutz, Perry Schwartz, Vard Stockton and Bob Reinhard. Prior to arriving at Cal, Allison saw duty in World War I, where he earned the nickname "Top Sarge."

TROY AUZENNE (2003)

Auzenne, a left tackle for the Bears from 1988-91, earned first team All-American honors by the Football Coaches Association his senior year. Playing on Bear teams that won both the 1990 Copper Bowl (17-15 over Wyoming) and the 1992 Citrus Bowl (37-13 over Clemson), Auzenne earned All-Pac-10 first team recognition in his final season. Drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, he played five years in the NFL with the Bears (1992-95) and Indianapolis Colts (1996).

JON BAKER (1991)

Baker lettered for the Bears in 1944 and from 1946-48 as a guard on offense and a linebacker on defense. After earning second team All-Coast honors in 1947, he picked up first team recognition in 1948. In those two seasons, Cal won all but a pair of games and captured the conference championship twice to earn a spot in the Rose Bowl. Baker earned the Vard Stockton Award as Cal's outstanding defensive player in the 1949 Rose Bowl. He also played rugby in 1947 and 1948. After graduating with a degree in civil engineering, he went on to a fine NFL career. Baker was the league's Rookie Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1949 for the New York Giants and an All-Pro in 1951. In 1952, he was named to the Pro Bowl.

STANLEY BARNES (1986)

Stanley Barnes played left tackle for Coach Andy Smith from 1919-21 and the Golden Bears went 24-2-2 in those years. The 1920 and 1921 teams, the first of the five immortal "Wonder Teams," went on to play in the Rose Bowl. Barnes, who served as President of his junior class, was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1990)

The only Cal player ever picked No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft, Bartkowski quarterbacked the Bears from 1972-74. As a senior, he led the nation in passing with 2,580 yards, and he completed his career with a then-Cal-record four 300-yard passing games. Cal's Most Valuable Player and a consensus first team All-American in 1974, he was taken first in the 1975 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons, playing in the NFL from 1975-86. In addition, Bartkowski was an All-American first baseman for the Bears baseball team in 1973 and led the squad with a .329 batting average.

VIC BOTTARI (1986)

Nicknamed "Vallejo Vic," Bottari was a starting halfback for Cal from 1936-38 and served as team captain as a senior. He suffered just one defeat in his final two seasons and was a consensus All-American selection in 1938. He finished his career as the third-leading scorer in Cal history with 145 points. Bottari was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1996 and is also a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He later served as president of the San Francisco Touchdown Club.

JIM BREECH (1999)

One of the finest placekickers in both Cal and NFL history, Breech connected on 50 field goals for the Bears from 1974-77 and completed his career as the most accurate collegiate kicker ever inside 40 yards, hitting 30-of-34 efforts. He was a two-time first team All-Pac-8 performer, leading the conference in scoring in 1977 with 82 points. Selected by the Detroit Lions in the 1978 NFL Draft, Breech spent 15 seasons in the league with Oakland (1978-79) and Cincinnati (1980-92), setting an NFL record by scoring in 186 consecutive games.

SAM CHAPMAN (1986)

Chapman was a three-year starter at halfback from 1935-37 and an outstanding player on both sides of the ball. He played on Cal's undefeated 1937 squad and earned first team All-America honors that season. In 1984, he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. Also an exceptional baseball player, Chapman batted .431 in 1936 and had a long professional career with the Philadelphia Athletics.

JIM "TRUCK" CULLOM (1995)

A first team All-Coast tackle in 1949, Cullom was known as "The Toe" for his kicking abilities. He set a Cal record by scoring in 25 consecutive games from 1947-49 and made 103 PAT attempts during his career. The Bears were 29-3 during his career and went to the Rose Bowl in his junior and senior seasons. Cullom, who played briefly in the NFL, served as an assistant coach with the Bears from 1964-71 under Ray Willsey. He also was a standout rugby player at Cal and helped Doc Hudson coach that team upon his graduation.

SEAN DAWKINS (2005)

Dawkins, a consensus first team All-American wide receiver for Cal teams that earned back-to-back appearances in the Copper and Citrus Bowls following the 1990-91 seasons, snared 65 passes for 1,070 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns to lead the Pac-10 during his senior season in 1992. Also named first team All-Pac-10 and Cal's Most Valuable Player in 1992, Dawkins was chosen by the Indianapolis Colts in the first round of the 1993 NFL Draft. He played 10 seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis (1993-97), New Orleans (1998), Seattle (1999-2000) and Jacksonville (2001).

CHARLEY ERB (1992)

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Erb was a leader of Andy Smith's "Wonder Teams" that won consecutive conference championships in 1920, '21 and '22. He had a combined record of 27-0-1 as a starter, during which the Bears outscored their opponents, 1220-81. Erb directed Cal to its first Rose Bowl appearance and No. 1 ranking in 1920. He teamed with Pesky Sprott, Crip Toomey and Duke Morrison to form the highest scoring backfield at Cal, rolling up 72 touchdowns and 510 points during the 1920 season.

ROD FRANZ (1986)

Cal's only three-time first team All-American in football, Franz was Cal's starting right guard from 1947-49. He helped the Bears to a 29-3 cumulative record during those three seasons and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances in his two campaigns. Also an assistant coach at Cal in 1956 and '57, Franz was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1977.

WALTER GORDON (1986)

Gordon, a standout tackle and guard, was the first Cal player to achieve national recognition when he was chosen to the Walter Camp third team All-America squad in 1918. He earned three letters in football and helped the Bears to the Pacific Coast Conference championship his senior season. Voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1975, he also won the intercollegiate boxing title in 1917.

RUSTY GILL (2006)

A versatile three-year letterman, Gill played both fullback and halfback for Cal's football team. He was a dependable back who gained his greatest fame in his senior year, leading Cal to an 8-2 record and second place in the Pacific Cost Conference in 1931. Gill was tabbed with an assortment of All-American honors, including first team by both the New York Sun and the American Football Players, second team by United Press and honorable mention by the Associated Press. A first team All-Coast selection, Gill came from a very athletic family, as brothers Frank, Harry, Sam and Carol all played football at Cal.

PERCY HALL (1993)

Hall was part of one of the top backfields during the early years of Cal football (1896-99), teaming with Locomotive Smith and Kangaroo Pete Kaarsberg. Cal historian Brick Morse selected him as the first team halfback on his 1937 all-time Golden Bear football squad. In 1898, Hall helped Cal to an 8-0-2 record, including the Bears' first Big Game win over Stanford when he gained 183 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns. In addition, he played three years on Cal's baseball team at both first base and in the outfield.

JIM HANIFAN (2006)

Jim Hanifan started three years at defensive end for the Bears, and in 1953 and 1954 he also started at tight end. The Bears' 1954 team captain led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 569 yards and seven touchdowns. He received the Andy Smith Trophy for most conference minutes, was a unanimous first team All-Coast honoree and was chosen to the Catholic All-American team. After participating in the East-West Shrine Bowl, the Hula Bowl and the College All-Star game, Hanifan was selected by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League and later starred for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. In 1973, he entered the coaching ranks and has been a long-time NFL assistant and is a former NFL head coach.

LOREN HAWLEY (2007)

Loren Hawley played both rugby and football for the Bears from 1961-65 and is known as one of the best American-born rugby players to ever play the game. Tabbed "King of the Lineouts," Hawley helped revolutionize the game with his tremendous aerial skills. Playing for the legendary Miles "Doc" Hudson, he led Cal to an undefeated record vs. U.S. competition in 1965. On the football field, he was an accomplished defensive back and wide receiver.

JACK HART (2010)

A first-team all-conference selection in 1958, Hart served as co-captain the team that won the Pacific Coast Conference and played in the 1959 Rose Bowl. As a running back, he led Cal in rushing (395 yards), receiving (396 yards) and scoring (58 points) his senior season, which was capped with two touchdowns vs. Iowa in the Rose Bowl. He also paced the Bears in scoring as a sophomore (36 points) and junior (36 points). Hart has remained close to Cal and college football since graduating, serving as executive director of the annual East-West Shrine Game and as committee chairman for the Glenn Seaborg Award, which is presented to a distinguished former Cal football player each fall. He is also a past president of Pappy's Boys, an organization of players who played for head coach Pappy Waldorf that continues to support the Golden Bears.

MATT HAZELTINE (1988)

Hazeltine was an All-American center for the Bears in both 1953 and '54, playing under head coach Pappy Waldorf. He also earned Freshman All-America honors in 1951. After graduating from Cal, Hazeltine played 15 years in the NFL, the first 14 with the San Francisco 49ers, and played in a pair of Pro Bowls.

GARY HEIN (1997)

A two-sport star for the Bears, Hein started at cornerback in 1985 and '86. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a senior and accumulated 132 tackles and eight interceptions during his career. Hein, though, gained most of his accolades on the rugby field, where he was a four-time All-American and captured the Woodley Award as the nation's top collegian in both 1987 and '88. He helped Cal to three collegiate titles and also played for the U.S. national team from 1986-94.

BOB HERWIG (1988)

A three-year letterman in both football and basketball from 1935-37, Herwig played on Cal's "Thunder Teams" on the gridiron. He picked up All-America honors at center his senior year and was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1964. On the basketball court, Herwig served as team captain his final year.

EDWIN "BABE" HORRELL (1987)

The starting center on Cal's undefeated "Wonder Teams" in 1923 and '24, Horrell served as captain of the 1924 squad, the same year he earned first team Walter Camp All-American honors. He played a big role in the first game ever contested in Memorial Stadium, tackling a Stanford runner in the end zone for a safety in a 9-0 victory. In 1969, Horrell was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

TALMA "TUT" IMLAY (2000)

A two-year letterman at halfback who played for Andy Smith, Imlay was a third team Walter Camp All-American in 1924. His running and pass-catching abilities helped the '24 squad to a No. 2 national ranking at one juncture and an 8-0-2 overall record. After serving as team captain in 1925, Imlay played in the inaugural East-West Shrine game and scored the game's first touchdown.

JACKIE JENSEN (1986)

One of the greatest athletes ever to play at Cal, Jensen excelled in both football and baseball for the Bears. On the gridiron, he earned first team All-America honors at running back in 1948 when he became the first Cal runner to rush for more than 1,000 yards (1,080 yards). For his career, he finished with 1,703 yards and averaged 6.0 yards per carry. In baseball, he was twice named All-American and helped Cal to the 1947 College World Series title. At the professional level, Jensen was voted the American League MVP while with the Boston Red Sox in 1958. He was voted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1984.

JOE KAPP (1992)

Kapp played both football and basketball for the Bears in the late 1950s before returning as head football coach from 1982-86. As a player, he quarterbacked Cal to the Rose Bowl following the 1958 campaign, a season in which he also earned first team All-American honors. Kapp also lettered in basketball in 1956 and '57. After graduating, he spent eight years in the Canadian Football League before moving to the NFL, where he led the Minnesota Vikings to the Super Bowl IV on January 11, 1970. As head coach of the Bears, he compiled a 20-34-1 record.

GROVER KLEMMER (1988)

A talented all-around athlete, Klemmer lettered in track and field, football and basketball in the early 1940s. Most of his exploits came in track, where he set a world record in the 400 meters (46.0) and the 440 yards (46.4). As anchor for Cal's mile relay in 1941, he helped the Bears to a world record-time of 3:09.4.

PAUL LARSON (1994)

The only Cal quarterback ever to lead the nation in total offense, Larson earned first team All-American honors in 1954 when he also paced the country in passing with 1,537 yards and completed 64.1 percent of his attempts. Larson was 3-0-1 vs. Stanford while at Cal and his 280 passing yards vs. UCLA in 1954 was a school record at the time.

HARRY LIVERSEDGE (1996)

A versatile athlete who made his biggest headlines in track and field, Liversedge also lettered at guard in football in 1916 and in rugby in 1914. He won a bronze medal at the 1920 Olympics in the shot put with a mark of 46-5 1/4 and was an alternate for the 1924 Olympic team. Liversedge went on to a distinguished military career with the U.S. Marines, receiving both a Navy Cross and a Bronze Star and rising to the rank of brigadier general. He also helped lead the Marines ashore during the Iwo Jima campaign in 1944.

BEN LOM (1991)

Lom lettered for the Bears from 1927-29 and earned All-Pacific Coast Conference honors his last two seasons. He was a member of the Cal squad that played in the 1929 Rose Bowl and later served as the first president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. However, he is perhaps best known as the player who tackled Roy Riegels near the goal line on his wrong way run in the '29 Rose Bowl.

MICK LUCKHURST (2005)

Luckhurst was a two-sport standout in rugby and football. He was named tournament MVP when he helped Cal to its first collegiate national rugby title by kicking a pair of penalty kicks and a dropkick to give the Bears a come-from-behind victory over Air Force in 1980. Also a standout placekicker on the Cal football team, he led the Bears in scoring as both a junior (55 points, 9-for-15 in field goals) and senior (60 points, 14-of-17 field goals). He later enjoyed a distinguished career in the NFL, playing for Atlanta from 1981-87.

LAWRENCE LUTZ (2003)

Steussie was one of the most dominant offensive linemen in school history, playing from 1990-93 and earning the Morris Trophy as the top offensive lineman in the Pac-10 his senior year when he was also tabbed a first-team All-American. Twice named first-team All-Pac-10, he helped the Bears to three bowl game victories - the 1990 Copper Bowl, the 1991 Citrus Bowl and the 1993 Alamo Bowl. Steussie was selected with the No. 19 pick of the first round of the NFL Draft by the Minnesota

Vikings. A two-time Pro Bowl selection, he spent 14 years in the league, starting 185 of 213 games.

VARD STOCKTON (2005)

Stockton, who died in an auto accident in 1946, earned first team All-American, All-Pacific Coast Conference and All-West Coast honors on Cal's 1937 football team that registered a 10-0-1 record, including a 13-0 win over Alabama in the Rose Bowl. Noted for his blocking ability that opened holes for the likes of Vic Bottari and Sam Chapman, perhaps his most shining moment came in the 1936 Big Game when he stole the ball from Stanford's Jimmy Coffis to set up a touchdown in Cal's 13-0 win over its cross-town rival.

JIM TURNER (1996)

Turner was a first team All-American tackle in both 1948 and '49. He served as captain of the '49 team that finished 10-1 and earned a Rose Bowl date with Ohio State. Turner overcame a knee injury his senior season after having one of his ribs removed prior to his final campaign because of a tumor.

CARL VAN HEUIT (1992)

One of the top safeties in college football, Van Heuit played on Pappy Waldorf's Rose Bowl teams of 1949 and '50, Van Heuit was a 1950 All-American for the Bears. He also earned the team's Vard Stockton Award for being the outstanding defensive player in the two bowl games. Following graduation, Van Heuit served as an assistant coach at Cal for six seasons and as a volunteer freshman coach for another 20 years. He was selected the Bear Backer "Bear of the Year" in 1988.

FRANK "BUD" VAN DEREN (2004)

A 1948 first team all-conference end, Van Deren played on Cal clubs that posted a 19-2 record during his two seasons (1947-48). Also selected to Cal's Centennial Team, he starred on a 1948 squad that registered a 10-1 mark and earned a share of the Pacific Coast Conference championship. Van Deren also coached on Pappy Waldorf's 1950 and '51 Rose Bowl teams, returned to Cal in the 1960s to coach on Ray Willsey's staff, and later served as head coach at Humboldt State for 26 years.

PAPPY WALDORF (1987)

Head coach at Cal from 1947-56, Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record. In his first four seasons, his teams lost only one regular season game and played in three Rose Bowls. Between 1947 and 1951, Waldorf's teams played 38 consecutive regular season games without a defeat. He also has the best record of any Cal coach in the Big Game with a 7-1-2 mark. Waldorf was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966.

WESLEY WALKER (1992)

One of the greatest deep threats in Cal history, Walker was a prolific receiver for the Bears from 1973-76, in addition to starring on the track and field team for four years. He set an NCAA record for highest average gain per catch in a career (minimum 75 catches) at 25.7 ypc. Walker finished his career with 86 receptions for 2,206 yards and 23 touchdowns, with his greatest game coming against San Jose State in 1976 when he had eight grabs for a school record 289 receiving yards. He went on to a 13-year NFL career with the New York Jets (1977-89) and played in a pair of Pro Bowls.

ED WHITE (1993)

White earned first team All-American status at nose guard in 1968, playing on Cal's "Bear Minimum" defense that allowed opponents an average of only 3.6 yards per play. At the NFL level, he switched to the offensive line. White played in four Super Bowls and made four Pro Bowls while playing for the Minnesota Vikings (1969-77) and San Diego Chargers (1978-85) over a 17-year pro career. White returned to Cal to coach the offensive line from 1999-2001.

MIKE WHITE (2007)

A varsity letterman in football, rugby, and track and field at Cal from 1955-57, Mike White also served as the Bears' head football coach from 1972-77, compiling a 35-30-1 record and leading the team to a share of the 1975 Pac-8 title. As an undergraduate, White played wide receiver and was a team captain as a senior in 1957. On the track, he won the high hurdles and high jump competition in the 1957 Big Meet vs. Stanford. In addition to his three varsity sports, White also earned a pair of junior varsity letters for Pete Newell in basketball.

RUSSELL WHITE (2003)

White is Cal's all-time rushing leader with 3,367 yards and averaged 5.1 yards per carry during his three years in Berkeley from 1990-92. He was a key member of the 1991 team that posted a 10-2 record, including a 37-13 victory over Clemson in the Citrus Bowl, and earned a No. 7 final national ranking by USA Today. A first team All-American in 1991 and a two-time first team All-Pac-10 selection, White led the Bears in rushing in both 1991 (1,177 yards, 14 TDs) and 1992 (1,069 yards, 9 TDs). He registered 15 100-yard rushing days during his Cal career, tied for second all-time at Cal.

SHERMAN WHITE (1989)

Sherman White had played little football before coming to Berkeley as a sophomore in 1969. In his second year with the team (1970), he sacked opponent quarterbacks 18 times, including Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett twice in the Big Game. He also knocked down five passes, made 44 unassisted tackles and aided in 31 others. He was named first team All-Coast and All-Pac-8. As a team captain in 1971, he earned All-American honors, as well as All-Pac-8 recognition for the second straight year, when he registered 75 tackles and three pass breakups. White was the second pick overall in the 1972 NFL Draft by Cincinnati and played four seasons for the Bengals (1972-75) before playing eight more campaigns with the Buffalo Bills (1976-83) to round out his career.

ARLEIGH WILLIAMS (2004)

Williams starred in both football and baseball in the 1930s and earned first team All-American notice as a senior halfback in 1934. Williams finished his career with 1,404 yards on 526 carries. Williams lettered on the 1934 and 1935 Cal baseball teams, with both clubs finishing first in the conference and combining for a 45-15-1 record during that period.

RAY WILLSEY (2014)

A quarterback and defensive halfback for the Golden Bears under head coach Pappy Waldorf, Willsey helped Cal to an 8-2 record and No. 12 ranking in 1951 and to a 7-3 mark in 1952. In the 1952 Big Game, he stepped in at quarterback after an injury to the starter and led the Bears to a 26-0 win. Willsey returned to his alma mater and served as Cal's head coach from 1964-71, overseeing the program during a tumultuous period in the school's history that included the Free Speech Movement and war-time protests. Still, Willsey was able to hold the team together and produced a record of 40-42-1 over eight seasons. In 1968, he oversaw the famed "Bear Minimum" defense, leading Cal to a 7-3-1 record – the only Cal team to win at least seven games from 1951-75. Among the star players he coached were All-Americans Craig Morton, Ed White and Sherman White. Following his tenure at Cal, Willsey won two Super Bowl titles on the staff of the Raiders, and he concluded his career as director of personnel for NFL Europe. Willsey, recipient of the 2002 Glenn Seaborg Award for outstanding career contributions by a Cal football player, passed away in November of 2013 at age 85.

JACK YERMAN (1994)

Yerman lettered as a running back in 1957 and 1958, helping Cal to a 1959 Rose Bowl appearance in his senior season. On the track, he was one of the top quarter-milers in the nation, running a best of 46.0 in the 400 meters. Yerman won an Olympic gold medal as part of the U.S. 1600-meter relay team in 1960 and also competed as an individual in the 400. He finished third in the NCAA 440 yards in 1958.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The California Golden Bears depicted on this page have earned the highest honor accorded a collegiate football player – membership into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. California's proud gridiron tradition is showcased by a total of 22 Golden Bears enshrined in this prestigious Hall of Fame, a number which ranks the Blue and Gold among the top schools in the country.

The College Football Hall of Fame first opened its doors in 1978 in South Bend, Ind., and moves in August of 2014 to Atlanta, Ga.

THIS IS CAL

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
Berkeley, California

THE UNIVERSITY

Founded in the wake of the gold rush by leaders of the newly established 31st state, the University of California's flagship campus at Berkeley has become one of the preeminent universities in the world. Its early guiding lights, charged with providing education (both "practical" and "classical") for the state's people, gradually established a distinguished faculty (with 22 Nobel laureates to date, inlcuding eight current faculty), a stellar research library, and 350 academic degree programs.

This California institution became a catalyst of economic growth and social innovation – the place where vitamin E was discovered, a lost Scarlatti opera found, the flu virus identified, and the nation's first no-fault divorce law drafted. Scholars at Cal have conducted ground-breaking research on urban street gangs and on basic human nutritional requirements, identified why wartime supply ships were failing at sea, invented technologies to build faster and cheaper computer chips, and imaged the infant universe.

In recognition of broad and deep excellence, respected sources have repeatedly ranked the University at or near the top in fields ranging from engineering and the "hard" sciences to the social sciences, arts and humanities. The National Research Council, in the most recent version of its highly-regarded report on U.S. public and private universities, ranked Cal No. 1 nationally in the number of campus graduate programs (48 out of 52) among the top 10 in their fields.

In accordance with the University's "public" character, Cal has long served talented individuals regardless of means. As early as 1897, financial aid was available for "needy and deserving" students. More than a century later, Cal combines outstanding teaching and research programs with broad access for students of all means – educating more federal Pell Grant recipients from low-income families than all eight Ivy League universities combined. Twenty-five percent of freshmen are the first in their families to attend college.

CAL STUDENT-ATHLETE FACTS

- Eight Golden Bear squads had perfect Academic Progress Rates of 1,000 for the 2012-13 academic year. Four Golden Bear programs received Public Recognition Awards from the NCAA for their outstanding academic achievement and high multiyear averages, a total that ranked second among Pac-12 schools. Those teams – men's and women's tennis, women's gymnastics and women's volleyball – all earned the highest possible score, with four-year APR scores of 1,000
- For 10 straight years from 2003-12, Cal finished among the top 15 in the Directors' Cup, a national ranking that measures overall success in intercollegiate athletics programs. Cal has finished in the top 20 every year since 2003 with a No. 20 ranking most recently in 2014.
- 85 national championships within 15 different sports.
- 264 individual national championships won by Cal student-athletes.
- Cal had 46 participants, including 38 athletes and five coaches, at the 2012 Summer Olympics — more than any other public school in the nation. Cal's all-time Olympic medal count: 178 medals won by Cal students and alumni, 99 of them gold.

CAL FACTS

- Berkeley has one of the top university librariy systems in the nation. With well over 11 million volumes and more than 400 special collections, Berkeley's library holdings among its 32 libraries are the fourth-largest in the United States and have been ranked first in the nation among public libraries.
- There are over 1,700 clubs on campus from which students may choose.
- There are 130 academic departments and more than 80 interdisciplinary research units.
- There are more than 7,000 courses in some 350 degree programs.
- The campus produces more Ph.D.s annually than any other U.S. university
- Cal has the largest number of highly-ranked graduate programs in the country.

CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION

NICHOLAS B. DIRKS
UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

Nicholas B. Dirks became the 10th chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley on June 1, 2013. An internationally renowned historian and anthropologist, he is a leader in higher education and well-known for his commitment to and advocacy for accessible, high-quality undergraduate education in the liberal arts and sciences, to the globalization of the university and to innovation across the disciplines as well as in applied and basic fields.

Before coming to Berkeley, he was the executive vice president for the arts and sciences and dean of the faculty at Columbia University, where, in addition to his work on behalf of undergraduate programs, he improved and diversified the faculty, putting special emphasis on interdisciplinary and international initiatives. The Franz Boas Professor of Anthropology and History, Dirks joined Columbia in 1997 as chair of the anthropology department. Prior to his appointment at Columbia, he was a professor of history and anthropology at the University of Michigan for 10 years, before which he taught Asian history and civilization at the California Institute of Technology.

Dirks has held numerous fellowships and scholarships and received several scholarly honors, including a MacArthur Foundation residential fellowship at the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, a Guggenheim Fellowship, and the Lionel Trilling Award for his book Castes of Mind. He serves on numerous national and international bodies, as adviser or member of the board, and is a Fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations.

JOHN WILTON
VICE CHANCELLOR – ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE

John Wilton is UC Berkeley's vice chancellor for administration and finance. In this position, Wilton is responsible for managing: the university's annual operating budget of more than $2 billion; the continuing design and implementation of Operational Excellence; the stabilization of the campus budget; and the establishment of a sustainable financial model for Berkeley's future. The divisions he oversees comprise more than 3,000 employees and campus operations that include: financial and human resources; auxiliary and business services; real estate; information technology; intercollegiate athletics; sustainability and energy; health; and public safety.

Prior to joining Berkeley in February 2011, Wilton served as the managing director and the director of international research for Farallon Capital Management LLC, a global, multi-strategy, U.S.-based investment management firm. He was also an advisor on developments in the global economy to Hellman and Friedman LLC, a private investment company. Prior to his employment at Farallon, he worked for the World Bank for 24 years. At the bank, he served in positions including, chief financial officer, vice president for strategy, finance and risk management, and senior economist.

Vice Chancellor Wilton received his bachelor's and master's degrees in economics from Sussex University. He left his Ph.D. program at Cambridge University in 1982 to join the World Bank's Young Professionals Program, and remained with the international financial institution until 2006.

BOB JACOBSEN
FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

Bob Jacobsen, a Professor of Physics, serves as Cal's faculty athletics representative.

Appointed to the position in 2010, Jacobsen provides oversight and advice to Cal Athletics concerning compliance with NCAA rules and student-athlete academic matters. He represents Cal in dealings with both the NCAA and the Pac-12, and advises the chancellor on campus policies relating to student-athletes.

Jacobsen spent 1976 through 1986 working in the computer and data communications industry for a small company that was successively bought out by larger and larger companies before he returned to graduate school. From 1991-94, he was a scientific associate and scientific staff member at CERN, the European Laboratory for Nuclear Physics, in Geneva, Switzerland. While there, he was a member of the ALEPH collaboration concentrating on B physics and on the energy calibration of the LEP collider. He joined the faculty at Cal in 1995.

Among Jacobsen's honors at the University are its Distinguished Teaching Award, the Noyce Prize for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching and the Goldman Award for Distinguished Faculty Advising of Undergraduates. He has delivered lectures on his research activities on four continents and taught special classes for graduate students at 14 universities. During the 2013-14 academic year, he is serving as the interim Dean for Undergraduate Studies in the College of Letters and Science.

Jacobsen's research has studied the basic properties of the Universe using the techniques of particle physics. Upon arrival at Berkeley he joined the BaBar experiment, a worldwide collaboration of more than 500 scientists and engineers who built a device to study the fundamental interactions of matter and antimatter. During its run from 1999-2006, the experiment accumulated the world's largest sample of particles for studying the intrinsic difference between matter and antimatter.

His current project, the LUX collaboration, is using a detector 4,800 feet underground in the Homestake Mine in South Dakota to study dark matter, which comprises the majority of the Universe yet is largely unknown.

Jacobsen obtained a B.S.E.E. from MIT in 1978 and his Ph.D. in experimental high-energy physics from Stanford in 1991.

ATHLETICS EXECUTIVES

MICHAEL WILLIAMS
INTERIM DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Michael Williams '82, a wrestler as an undergraduate student at Cal and the current vice chair of the UC Berkeley Foundation, is serving as Interim Director of Athletics, a role he began in July 2014.

Williams will oversee the athletic department until a national search is completed for a permanent Director of Athletics.

"I am honored and humbled by this opportunity to give back to a university and intercollegiate athletics program that played such an important role in my life," Williams said. "I look forward to engaging with all of Berkeley's stakeholders working in close concert with the amazing student-athletes, coaches and staff that comprise the incomparable Cal Athletics family."

Williams was elected to the UC Berkeley Foundation Board of Trustees in 2007 and joined the Foundation's Executive Committee in 2009. He is also on the advisory boards of the UC Berkeley Division of Equity and Inclusion, the Haas Socially Responsible Investment Fund, Bronze Investments and several nonprofit boards, including the California Heritage Trust.

Additionally, Williams is an active member of the Chancellor's Task Force on Academics and Athletics, which issued a report over the summer on campus policies and practices; the role of coaches, administrators and faculty; and issues related to academic expectations and the student-athlete experience on the Berkeley campus.

Williams retired in 2009 as vice chair, Capital Markets, for Barclays Global Investors, the world's largest institutional asset manager at the time. Other roles at BGI included head of the Global Index and Markets Group, where he was directly responsible for over $1.1 trillion in assets, head of Global Securities Lending and CEO, President and Trustee of BGI's mutual funds. Before joining BGI in 1993, Williams was a debt trader and corporate finance officer for Bank of America. He began his career at Data Resources, Inc.

After receiving his degree in economics from Cal, Williams earned an MBA in finance from the Anderson School of Management at UCLA. He and his wife Jeanne have three children and reside in Lafayette.

SOLLY FULP
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS / CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Solly Fulp is the Chief Operating Officer & Deputy Director of Athletics at the University of California, Berkeley, where he brings 20 plus years of intercollegiate athletics experience as a former student-athlete, administrator, and business leader. In this role, Fulp is responsible for sport supervision, revenue generation, and college athletics business operations; he oversees ticket sales, event management, facilities-operations, capital projects, and department-university revenue generation initiatives.

Prior to rejoining the Cal Athletics team, Fulp was a Conference Vice President for IMG College. Fulp managed the multi-media rights business for seven Pac-12 universities including Cal, Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Arizona, Arizona State and UCLA, as well as the Rose Bowl property. In addition, he administered IMG College's West Coast regional sales operations. In this capacity he led a staff of 47 full-time employees and oversaw annual revenue and operating budgets, growing revenue and operations from $29 million to more than $60 million.

Before IMG College, Fulp was an Assistant Athletics Director for Corporate Development at Cal and later a Senior Vice President/General Manager for the Cal ISP Sports Network. Fulp also served at the Sacramento State Athletics Department in event management, marketing, ticketing, corporate partnerships, and senior administration.

Fulp received his BA in English from the University of Oregon and earned a MA in Educational Administration & Policy Studies from Sacramento State. He has served as an adjunct professor with the University of San Francisco's sports management program teaching a course on "The Business of College Athletics." During the 2014 Fall semester Fulp will be teaching a Sports Management class at the Haas School of Business.

TERESA K. GOULD
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS / CHIEF OF STAFF

Teresa K. Gould, who joined the Golden Bear staff in the fall of 2001, serves as Cal's Deputy Director of Athletics as well as the department's Chief of Staff.

Gould serves as the primary point of contact for the director of athletics and decision making for cross-functional activities across the department. The position is responsible for prioritizing departmental needs, coordinating and streamlining multi-functional decision making and ensuring that departmental resources align with stated goals. Gould serves as a primary policy advisor and takes the lead in coordinating the work of the five-person Leadership Team and the implementation of the Director's strategic agenda. Additionally, she will serve as the sports supervision lead, providing governance on policy, procedures and programming that will deliver consistent oversight and support of all of Cal's sports programs. She also coordinates and manages Cal Athletics' strategic plan, both its development and execution, as well as internal communications throughout the department.

Gould oversees the budgetary and operational needs of various intercollegiate varsity teams at Cal, including both men's and women's basketball, providing guidance and support to each program's head coach. A member of various NCAA and Pacific-12 Conference committees, including the Pac-12 Council, Gould serves as the department's liaison to the Pac-12 Networks.

Before moving to Berkeley in September of 2001, Gould served as Associate Commissioner of the West Coast Conference in San Bruno, Calif. In seven years with the WCC, she managed the league's television, marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, as well as administered conference championships and served as staff liaison to various coaches groups. She was a member of the NCAA Division I Management Council for two years during her tenure at the WCC.

From 1992-94, Gould worked for ESPN Regional Television in Charlotte, N.C., as Conference Relations Coordinator. In this role, she served as the liaison to several NCAA Division I conferences. In addition, Gould was Director of Championships and Media Relations for the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in Indianapolis from 1990-92, Public Relations/Promotions Assistant for the Iowa Games Sports Festival (1989-90) and Assistant to the Coordinator of Football Recruiting at Iowa State (1987-90).

Gould received her bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications from Iowa State in 1990 and her master's degree in education from Cal in 2009. She and her husband, UC Davis head football coach Ron Gould, reside in the East Bay, where they raise their sons, Tevin and Trae.

ATHLETICS EXECUTIVES

PHIL ESTEN
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS / EXTERNAL RELATIONS

Phil Esten is the Deputy Director of Athletics for External Relations. Esten has been with Cal Athletics since August of 2012, formerly serving as the Associate Vice President for Alumni Relations and President and CEO of the Alumni Association at the University of Minnesota.

Esten leads External Relations, with responsibility for the overall Cal Athletics brand. With an eye on comprehensive and coordinated messaging, he is responsible for all departmental public relations and branding efforts with emphasis on the overall case for support and sharing the unique "Cal story". Esten oversees development, athletic communications, creative services, marketing/advertising, social media and IMG. Together, these units work to strategically communicate with Cal's intended audience and generate key financial resources that support the overall Cal Athletics mission.

In his role, Esten also serves as the Chief Development Officer and is working to develop a multiyear strategic plan and advancement model that will expand and steward the athletic department's donor base and increase giving participation to support Cal Athletics' 30-sport program. The model will include an enhanced focus on giving to the annual fund, major gift development and planned giving opportunities as well as alumni engagement and strategic communications with key stakeholders.

Esten served as the President and CEO of the University of Minnesota Alumni Association since 2010, working with a 49-person national Board of Directors, and managing a $4.7 million annual budget and $24 million in invested funds. Prior to working for Minnesota's Alumni Association, he was an Associate Athletic Director at Minnesota and had worked in the Golden Gopher's athletic department since 2004.

As Minnesota's associate athletic director, Esten managed the overall strategic plan for intercollegiate athletics, which included 25 sports and 225 employees. He was the department's point person for the university's new on-campus football stadium, TCF Bank Stadium that opened in 2009, providing oversight and serving as the intercollegiate athletics liaison. Esten also was instrumental in stadium fundraising, an effort that included $90 million in individual and corporate support for the stadium as well as more than $45 million in funds for academic programming and other University initiatives.

Esten, who has a doctoral degree in kinesiology from Minnesota, taught graduate level courses as an adjunct professor in the university's kinesiology department for over a decade. He earned his Master of Arts degree in sports management from The Ohio State University in 1999 and majored in Corporate Fitness/Business at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn. in 1995, where he played baseball. Esten was Assistant Director of Athletic Ticketing and Events at Ohio State from 1997-2000.

Esten and his wife, Dani, have three children – Lucas (eight), Cooper (five) and Hannah (three).

FOTI MELLIS
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR / INTERCOLLEGIATE SERVICES

Foti Mellis, who has more than 25 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics and has worked at Cal since 2002, serves as the Athletic Department's Senior Associate Athletic Director for Intercollegiate Services.

In his role, Mellis is responsible for the overall delivery of a world-class student-athlete experience, including all functions and activities that directly impact Cal's ability to serve its student-athletes. The three broad areas of oversight are Intercollegiate Services (student-athlete affairs, sports operations, scheduling, post season championships and summer camps), Performance, Health & Welfare (sports medicine, strength & conditioning, nutrition, sports science, and high performance) and Compliance Services (including financial aid and eligibility). In addition, he is the department's liaison to campus for Admissions, Financial Aid, UC State Government Relations and the Center for Student Conduct. He also supervises women's volleyball, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's track & field, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's crew and the newly added sport of women's sand volleyball.

Mellis most recently was responsible for the supervision of Capital Projects and oversight of the successful completion of California Memorial Stadium and the Simpson Center. Early in his tenure, he reorganized and enhanced Cal's compliance operations, and implemented a student-athlete database networked to all department staff and various campus units. He was also instrumental in the restructuring of the Student-Athlete Affairs unit that included additional staff and the development of a new philosophy for the student-athlete experience.

Mellis arrived at Cal after spending four years as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance at Arizona State, where he oversaw all areas of compliance for the department. Prior to his stay in Tempe, he spent two years at The University of Tulsa as Director of Compliance from 1996-98. Mellis began his administrative career at Northwestern in 1994, spending one year as an intern and a second year as a compliance assistant.

A graduate of UC Davis, Mellis held various positions with the Aggies from 1988-94, including assistant men's basketball coach, academic advisor and intern in the athletic department. He received his bachelor's degree in managerial economics in 1990 and his master's in education in 1996, both from UC Davis.

DAVID SECOR
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR / CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

David Secor has served as Senior Associate Athletics Director / Chief Financial Officer at the University of California at Berkeley since July 29, 2013 where he brings more than three decades of experience in the University of California System and 13 years of experience as an Athletics Chief Financial Officer.

Secor's primary responsibility is to provide fiduciary oversight and daily management of business and finance. Acting as the key steward of Cal Athletics' financial resources, Secor will offer alignment and collaboration with campus partners in business and finance. He is also responsible for human resources, information systems and technology and equipment management.

With an extensive background in both financial planning and athletic administration, Secor began his tenure at Cal following more than 30 years at UCLA. He is well versed with the UC system and with athletics with 12 years of experience as UCLA's Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Financial Officer, before serving as the Director of Financial Services for UCLA Capital Programs from 2010 through 2013.

In his role as UCLA Athletics' CFO, Secor managed all aspects of the athletic department's finances, including budget oversight, budget forecasting, accounting and purchasing. As the principal financial advisor to the athletic director, Secor was responsible for balancing an annual operating budget that grew to $65 million in his tenure. He developed an innovative model, restructuring financial reporting systems that helped to manage the athletic department's controllable expenses and to deliver an operating surplus in each year of his tenure.

Secor also has an extensive background in financial planning and budget oversight for capital projects. He has managed the financial aspects of several major construction projects, including the renovation of Pauley Pavilion, the home of many UCLA sports programs.

Secor joined UCLA Capital Programs as the Director of Financial Services in 2010. As a lead financial officer for the campus' major capital improvements, he developed strong relationships with campus clients to determine financial feasibility of proposed projects and worked collaboratively to institute successful funding strategies. He worked closely with the University of California Office of the President Capital Markets & Finance.

Secor also served as the Budget Officer for the UCLA Office of the Administrative Vice Chancellor. He began his work in the UCLA athletic department in 1990, serving a six-year term as the department's Fiscal Officer. His tenure as an administrator at UCLA began in 1982 where he worked as a computer support manager, computer programmer and purchasing manager for the Associated Students program.

A 1985 graduate of UCLA with a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics, Secor was a both a Regents and California State Scholar. He resides with his spouse, Brandon Leger, in Berkeley.

2013-14 ATHLETIC HIGHLIGHTS

NATIONAL TEAM CHAMPIONS

Rugby – Collegiate Rugby Championship 7s
Men's Swimming and Diving

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

Men's Crew – Second Varsity Eight, Third Varsity Eight
Women's Crew – Varsity Four
Ryan Murphy (Men's Swimming) – 100 Backstroke, 200 Backstroke
Missy Franklin (Women's Swimming) – 200 Freestyle, 800 Freestyle relay

NATIONAL TOP-10 TEAM FINISHES

Men's Swimming & Diving – NCAA Championships (1st)
Women's Crew – NCAA Championships (2nd)
Rugby – Fall 7s (2nd), Spring 15s (4th)
Men's Crew – IRA Championships (2nd)
Women's Swimming & Diving – NCAA Championships (3rd)

2013-14 DIRECTORS' CUP

Cal placed 20th in the final 2013-14 Directors' Cup standings, finishing fifth among Pac-12 schools. The Pac-12 tied with the ACC for the most schools in the Top 20 with five each. Cal has finished in the Top 20 every year since 2000.

Cal totaled 878.8 points for the year, 20 points better than last season. Stanford came in first with 1,482 points. The other three Pac-12 schools in the Top 20 were No. 7 UCLA (1078.50), No. 8 USC (1063.75) and No. 15 Oregon (943.0). The Pac-12 had seven schools in the Top 27 with Arizona coming in at No. 26 (795.25) and Arizona State right behind them at No. 27 (793.25).

Five Golden Bear teams with points counting towards the standings ended the year among the top five in the country, led by the national champion men's swimming and diving team, and No. 2 women's rowing. In addition, women's swimming and diving finished third, women's water polo ended the year fourth nationally, and men's water polo and men's soccer were fifth.

The Directors' Cup was developed as a joint effort between the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and USA Today. Points are awarded based on each institution's finish in up to 20 sports sponsored by the NCAA – 10 women's and 10 men's. The Bears do not receive points for men's crew or rugby because they are not NCAA-sponsored sports.

Women's Water Polo – No. 4 in final CWPA poll
Men's Water Polo – No. 5 in final CWPA poll
Men's Soccer – NCAA Quarterfinals (5th)
Men's Gymnastics – NCAA Qualifiers (7th)
Women's Tennis – NCAA Championships - Round of 16 (No. 9)

OTHER POSTSEASON PARTICIPANTS

Men's Basketball – NIT Quarterfinals
Women's Basketball – NCAA Second Round
Men's Golf – NCAA Championships
Women's Golf – NCAA Championships
Women's Gymnastics – NCAA Regionals
Women's Soccer – NCAA First Round
Men's Tennis – NCAA Championships - Round of 16
Men's Indoor Track & Field – NCAA Championships
Men's Outdoor Track & Field – NCAA Championships
Women's Outdoor Track & Field – NCAA Championships
Volleyball – NCAA Championships

TRADITIONS & SPIRIT

BIG C

The Big C is located on Charter Hill above Memorial Stadium and was constructed in 1905 by the classes of 1907 and 1908. The road up to the Big C was built in 1916 by the male members of the Cal student body in three-and-a-half hours, using 2,000 picks and shovels that were donated by the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Rally Committee became the custodians and guardians of the Big C sometime after 1952. Since then, the Committee has been in charge of painting the C and protecting it from vandalism.

BLUE AND GOLD

Official colors of the University of California were established at Berkeley in 1868. The colors were chosen by the University's founders, who were mostly Yale men who had come West. They selected gold as a color representing the "Golden State" of California. The blue was selected from Yale blue. Cal teams have donned the blue and gold since the beginning of intercollegiate athletic competition in 1882.

CAL BAND

The University of California Marching Band has been a tradition for more than 100 years, exemplifying many of the best aspects of student life at one of the nation's most prestigious public universities. It boasts over 200 members, a student-run management and a unique high-step marching style, all of which combine to make it one of the most singular bands of its kind.

Formed as the R.O.T.C. Cadet Band in 1889, the Cal Band adopted its present name in 1923. It has performed across the country and around the world at such events as the Brussels World Fair in 1958, Expo '70 in Japan and a Bicentennial Tour of the United States in 1976. In 1980, the Band took to the stage with the San Francisco Ballet, and it was the official state band for the city's welcome to Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip of Great Britain in 1983.

CAL SPIRIT GROUPS

The Cal Spirit groups are responsible for promoting all spirit-related activities and are active at home events, as well as many away contests. They act as ambassadors of the University by assisting with alumni functions, fundraising events and other occasions .

The Rally Committee, the oldest student group on campus, upholds school spirit and tradition. Above and beyond producing all rallies on campus, Rally Com is responsible for maintaining the Big C, displaying the California banner, the Cal flags, and constructing and executing card stunts at football games. Cal Cheerleading is an integral part of Cal Spirit! You can see the cheerleaders at all football games, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and other events.

The Cal Dance Team dances to traditional Cal fight songs and Cal Band rock songs. During the football season, they perform on a platform that is elevated off the football field. They participate as well in various rallies, alumni and community events.

Cal Mic Men are student leaders of the rooting sections at all Cal sporting events. In addition, they emcee at rallies, alumni and community events.

Oski, the official mascot of the University of California, has been a tradition at the school since making his debut during the 1941 football season. Prior to his arrival, live mascots were used at Memorial Stadium with varying degrees of success. It was decided in 1940 that a costumed mascot would make a more suitable alternative to a live bear. Oski's identity is unknown to everyone, with the exception of the committee.

CALIFORNIA LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Cal's football alumni association, the California Letterman's Club, is an active organization that supports the Golden Bear football program. Formerly known as the Sons of California, the group was created several years ago to continue the relationships that were forged on the football field. Each year, the Letterman's Club has a reunion at a home game and holds a fundraising golf tournament in the spring. In addition, the club sponsors a reception at the end of the year for graduating football players and honor a deserving alumnus with the Glenn T. Seaborg Award named for the renowned Nobel laureate and former University of California chancellor.

CALIFORNIA VICTORY CANNON

The California Victory Cannon was presented to the Rally Committee in time for the 1963 Big Game by the class of 1964. At home games in Berkeley, it is shot off at the beginning of each game, after each score and after each Cal victory. Only once, against Pacific on Sept. 7, 1991, did the Bears score too many times, racking up 12 touchdowns before the cannon ran out of ammunition. The cannon, which was originally kept on the sidelines, has been mounted on Tightwad Hill above Memorial Stadium since 1971. In 2011, the cannon was present for home games at AT&T Park but was not fired due to clearance regulations.

CARD STUNTS

The Cal rooting section is credited with establishing one of the most time-honored traditions in college football with its card stunt performances. Cal began this activity for the 1910 "Big Game," a rugby match between Cal and Stanford. The original stunts performed that afternoon depicted the Stanford Axe and a big blue "C" formed on a white background.

The tradition has been a crowd favorite at Memorial Stadium as several times each season Cal students perform as many as 10 different stunts, using more than 5,000 cards. The painstaking process of plotting the positions of the cards, which once took days to complete, is now aided by computers that add to the precision of the images produced in the card section.

GOLDEN BEARS

In 1895, the University of California track and field team was the dominant power on the West Coast and decided to challenge several of the top teams in the Midwest and East on an eight-meet tour that is now credited by many historians as putting Cal Athletics onto the national scene. As a symbol of the University, regent Arthur Rodgers, class of 1872, commissioned a blue silk banner emblazoned with a golden grizzly bear, the symbol of the state of California. The banner was carried by the team on its successful tour, which saw them win five of the eight competitions. Cal Athletics fans were so ecstatic over the team's performance that professor Charles Mills Gayley was inspired to write the song "The Golden Bear." Cal's athletic teams have been known as the Golden Bears ever since.

MARCH TO VICTORY

Cal began a new "tradition" in the fall of 2002 with the March to Victory. Approximately two-and-a-half hours before kickoff of each home game, the Spirit Groups form a human tunnel just on the grand staircase outside the north tunnel of Memorial Stadium to cheer on the team as it exits the buses to march into the locker room.

PAPPY'S BOYS

Founded in 1986, Pappy's Boys is an organization of more than 500 former Golden Bears who played under legendary Cal football coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf. Not only does the group get together to relive the success of the Cal teams during the Waldorf era, but it also supports the current program in many ways. Recent efforts include establishing a $400,000 endowment for football scholarships and raising funds for two of the most recent additions to campus statuary: that of Waldorf kneeling near Faculty Glade and the giant grizzly bear by Memorial Stadium. Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record as head coach at Cal from 1947-56. For the 1948-50 seasons, Waldorf guided the Bears to a 39-3-1 record and three consecutive Rose Bowls. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966 and into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987. In the late 1990s, Pappy's Boys produced a book, "Pappy's Boys, The Rose Bowl Years: A Legacy of Winning," which was edited by Sports Illustrated writer Ron Fimrite and produced by former Cal quarterback Dick Erickson.

TIGHTWAD HILL

For decades, enterprising Golden Bear fans have hiked to Tightwad Hill high above the northeast corner of Memorial Stadium. Not only does the perch provide a free look at the action on the field, but it also offers a spectacular view of San Francisco Bay and many of the area bridges to the west.

SONGS OF CAL

While through the years Cal has collected numerous songs that are popular with its alumni and fans alike, two songs are regularly heard during the team's football games. Those songs include the familiar fight song entitled "Big C," a brisk marching tune composed by N.S. McLaren and H.P. Williams of the class of 1914. The other is the Cal alma mater, "Hail to California," written and composed by Clinton R. "Brick" Morse, class of 1896.
